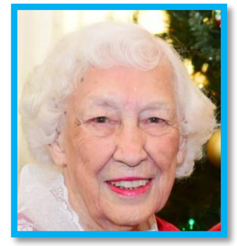
RAY

Ray Fairley

By Alpha Tolbert



ALPHA

Ray was born in Melair, Ohio. His dad was a superintendent in a can company and his mom was a homemaker. His family moved to Wheeling West Virginia. Ray went to school there and participated in basketball and tennis. When Ray graduated high school, he and his two brothers got on the bus and joined the Navy. He was in the Navy 2 years. Ray was on the gunning crew. He was on the flagship McArthur in the South Pacific.

Ray went to college in West Virginia then his family moved to Sacramento. He graduated from Sacramento State University. Ray worked as a lab technician in the hospital. He could not see doing that for the rest of his life, so he went to dental training and passed the test. He went to Marquette University in Indian and got his dental certificate.

Ray's girlfriend came out to California and they got married. He continued going to dental school. Ray passed the state board test. They decided they wanted to live in a small town, so they moved to Oroville. They had six children, four girls and two boys. Both Ray and his wife were involved in activities with their children. He was a boy scout leader and helped with basketball and softball.

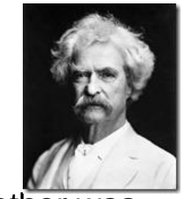
All of Ray's children went through Chico State University. His family went skiing at Lake Tahoe in the winter and in the summer, they rented a cabin on the beach in Carmel.

Ray said his wife was an excellent wife and mother and she was a builder. She would knock down walls and rebuild. She hated shopping so he would tell her "don't come back without buying something".

Two of his children are teachers, one is in international banking, one is a loan officer, one in an executive in an oil company and one works for an insurance company. Ray is very proud of his children.

After retiring Ray played tennis three days and went to the gym three days. Ray moved here last June. He likes it here and is thankful we all give each other support.

Monthly Quote: "The secret of getting ahead is just getting started"- Mark Twain



Monthly Joke: I refused to believe that my road worker father was stealing from his job, but when I got home, all the signs were there.

Monthly Fact: Psycho (1960) was the first film to ever show a toilet flushing.
