The Commons in Lincoln Earns a Five-Star Quality Rating from the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services for Its Nursing Center

(LINCOLN, Mass. – Oct. 27, 2017) –The Commons in Lincoln, a Benchmark Senior Living Community in Lincoln, Mass., has earned a Five-Star Quality Rating from the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS) for overall quality, quality measures and staffing in its skilled nursing center.

“The professionalism and dedication of the nursing center staff at The Commons in Lincoln has resulted in the distinction of earning a Five-Star Rating from CMS,” says Allison Melahouris, Benchmark’s senior vice president of quality resident services. “A skilled nursing center with five stars is considered to have above-average quality, and that goes a long way in helping residents, families and caregivers feel even more confident about choosing The Commons when the need arises.”

Every year, CMS uses information based on the success rate and long-term health of residents in skilled nursing centers to determine the overall quality of care. A Five-Star Quality Rating indicates the highest level of care and service.

The Commons in Lincoln offers comprehensive Medicare-certified sub-acute nursing and skilled rehabilitative therapy services to help individuals regain mobility, speech, balance and the skills necessary to maintain their highest level of independence.
