Waltonwood Ashburn Invites the Public to “Stamp Out Alzheimer’s” During Unique Fundraising Event

ASHBURN, Va., September 1, 2017 – According to the Alzheimer’s Association, in 2017 Alzheimer’s and other forms of dementia will impact 5.5 million people and cost the nation $259 billion. To help raise awareness about this serious disease, Waltonwood Ashburn is hosting a “Stamp out Alzheimer’s” bingo fundraising event on September 2 from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. at Community Church (19790 Ashburn Road in Ashburn). During this event, participants will be able to buy bingo cards for $5 each and play the game for as long as they want. The event is free and open to the public, and the proceeds from the bingo game tickets will go to Waltonwood Ashburn’s Walk to End Alzheimer’s team. Guests will enjoy refreshments and snacks provided by the senior living community, and the winner of each game will receive a prize valued at $30. For this event, the senior living community is partnering up with the Community Church in Ashburn and representatives from the Alzheimer’s Association National Capital Area Chapter will be attending as well. Waltonwood Ashburn is a premier senior living community currently under construction and will open late 2017.

“As we are getting closer to moving in our first residents, we really want to emphasize how important it is for us to be involved in the local community,” said Justin Roberts, executive director of Waltonwood Ashburn. “We believe that hosting a fun event to help raise awareness and money is another way to showcase how we at Waltonwood Ashburn always seek meaningful ways to support important causes. We are excited to continue our partnership with the Community Church, and we are thankful for their willingness to help us make this event possible.”

There is no doubt that bingo games have increased in popularity among all generations, and the games have a tremendous following online. There are also many benefits connected to playing the game, for example socialization and concentration. For these reasons, Waltonwood Ashburn believes this event will attract not only local seniors but younger generations as well. The Waltonwood Ashburn team and future residents plan to continue reaching out to the community by partnering with other nonprofit organizations, which is sure to positively impact all those involved.

“Bingo is one of the most popular games in the world, and it isn’t just for older adults anymore,” said Roberts. “Combining the excitement and competitiveness of bingo games with a good cause makes for a perfect fundraising event. We are thrilled to host this event, and we look forward to helping raise money to hopefully one day find a cure.”

Singh currently owns and operates 10 other Waltonwood Senior Communities in Michigan and North Carolina, and has several other communities in development and under construction in North Carolina and the Washington, D.C. metro area market.

ABOUT WALTONWOOD ASHBURN

Waltonwood Ashburn is currently under construction and plans to open in the late 2017. The boutique community will feature 114 independent living apartment homes, 72 assisted living apartments and 27 memory care apartments (mix of private studios, one- and two-bedroom) for up to 270 residents. Located in Northern Virginia just minutes from the Potomac River and about 45 minutes from Washington D.C., the 287,000-square-foot community will sit on 14.5 acres. At Waltonwood Ashburn, residents have the opportunity to enjoy a worry- and maintenance-free life filled with friends and all the luxury amenities they deserve.

In 1973, Gurmale Singh Grewal, along with his brothers Lushman and Jeat, established Singh as a family-owned company. Since that time, Singh has remained multifaceted in real estate development, with a strong foundation in luxury apartments, commercial properties, land development, high-end single family homes and, for nearly 30 years, senior living communities which have been branded “Waltonwood.” The vertical integration of the company, which provides for development, construction, finance and management all under one umbrella, allows Singh to remain poised for new opportunities in expanding markets. All projects are wholly owned by Singh and continue to be owned and managed by Singh.

With regional offices in Cary, N.C., Singh has made a strong commitment to the expansion of its brand into the southeast markets.
