Empty Bowls raises $11,630

If you haven't heard by now, Empty Bowls is a grass-roots, community-minded fundraiser event to fight hunger at the local level. "There is an incredible need in Payson and children should never be without a meal. Our food banks offer meals to hundreds of families each month," Donna Rokoff shared. And true to the intent of the need, Rokoff rallied her friends and fellow potters to bring this dream into reality right here in Payson. She inspired them to create bowls throughout the summer and between throwing pots, coordinating tasks and finding sponsors, she still found time to acquire the glazes, molds and other donations to help build an inventory of 500+ gorgeous ceramic bowls for her dream event. Rokoff built a committee of volunteers to help steer the event to the finish line. Sponsors generously gave of their time, products and services to assure that Empty Bowls was a success.

Walter Cronkite
Nov. 4, 1916 – Jul. 17, 2009

"The most trusted man in America" is often used when referring to the world renowned broadcaster and journalist of our century, Walter Cronkite. Best known for his tenure as anchor of the CBS Evening News, of which he covered world events including WWII bombings, the Nuremberg trials, the Vietnam War, the Dawson's Field hijackings, Watergate, the Iran Hostage Crisis as well as President John F. Kennedy, Martin Luther King, Jr. and John Lennon assassinations. Moreover, Cronkite shared moments we will never forget like the incredible images and coverage of the U.S. space program and the lunar landing of Apollo 11 as he clasped his hands and exuded pure enthusiasm. As one not to take sides, Cronkite delivered the news with concrete research, compassion and vigilance to find truth in all matters. When he retired in 1981, he shared, "That this is but a transition, a passing of the baton" and continued with CBS Special Reports with Walter Cronkite through 2006. And, "That's the way it is." www.wikipedia.org
