ANSWER ALL QUESTIONS IN THIS SECTION WHERE THE BOX IS CHECKED.

If the employer has checked the box next to the questions, the information requested is needed for a legally permissible reason, including, without limitation, national security considerations, a legitimate occupational qualification or business necessity. The Civil Rights Act of 1964 prohibits discrimination in employment because of race, color, religion, sex or national origin. Federal law also prohibits discrimination based on age, citizenship and disability. The laws of most states also prohibit some or all of the above types of discrimination as well as some additional types as discrimination based upon ancestry, marital status and sexual preference.
