

Whisper Woods at Smithtown Delivers Pizza to Suffolk County Police Department in Honor of National Law Enforcement Appreciation Day

(SMITHTOWN, NY – Jan. 11, 2017) – The staff from Whisper Woods at Smithtown showed its appreciation for officers at the Suffolk County Police Department by delivering pizzas on National Law Enforcement Appreciation Day.

“We were hoping that this small act of kindness would demonstrate how grateful and thankful we are for the difficult and important work they do every day,” said Desiree Krajnyak-Baker, executive director at Whisper Woods. “They do a wonderful job of protecting our community, and they deserve to know it.”

About Whisper Woods at Smithtown

Whisper Woods at Smithtown is dedicated to connecting older adults with the people, places and activities that bring purpose and meaning to life. This Benchmark Senior Living community, set to open in spring 2018, will offer assisted living and memory care. Seniors and families on the North Shore of Long Island can expect the highest quality of compassionate care and service that Benchmark, with more than 20 years of experience, provides. Please visit us online, or call 631-320-3181.

#

Officers at Suffolk County Police Department's 4th Precinct happily accepted the lunchtime gift of gratitude presented by Whisper Woods at Smithtown's director of community relations, Anthony Colletti, on National Law Enforcement Appreciation Day.