

AGING OUT LOUD

Each May, the Administration for Community Living leads our nation's celebration of Older Americans Month. This year's theme, "Age Out Loud," strived to give aging a new voice—one that reflects what today's older adults have to say.

The purpose of this theme shines a light on many important trends. More than ever before, older Americans are working longer, trying new things, and engaging in their communities. They're taking charge, striving for wellness, focusing on independence, and advocating for themselves and others. What it means to age has changed, and we celebrate the art of "aging gracefully."

To keep the ball rolling, The Clinton Presbyterian Community celebrated a new "Out Loud" activity every week during the month of May. The first Out Loud event took place at the M.S. Bailey Child Development Center in Clinton. Several residents volunteered their time to visit the children in their classrooms to Read Out Loud during their story time. This was a great time to share the joys of reading and bring the generations together for a time of learning and fellowship. The kids were thrilled to have visitors, and the residents loved every bit of it!

RECOGNIZING DONORS AS HEAVEN-SENT

Faith-based, charitable, not-for-profit ... these are just a few words that can be used to describe the Presbyterian Communities of South Carolina organization and its mission of serving older adults.

"Faith-based," "charitable," and "not-for profit" also hint at the crucial role that generous donors have played in our organization from the very beginning. Motivated by faith and charity, the churches and individuals that support us financially are true partners with us in this special ministry.

This issue of Community Connections is therefore dedicated to our donors. Without them, we could not continue to serve as our constituents have come to expect.

As the Letter of James says, "Every generous act of giving, with every perfect gift, is from above, coming down from the Father of lights, with whom there is no variation or shadow due to change" (1:17). Therefore, we recognize our donors as God's own blessing, sent from heaven. Thank you to our donors for your part in making this organization the outstanding ministry it is today!

LET PCSC GIVE BACK

Presbyterian Communities of South Carolina is delighted to recognize our supporters in this special donor issue of Community Connections. We are truly blessed to receive generous support from churches, presbyteries and individuals who keep our ministry strong and impactful.

While you will find much inside this issue celebrating the donors who support PCSC and those we serve, I also want to highlight that PCSC stands ready to support and resource our churches.

How can PCSC serve your church? In a number of ways. Do you have a weekly program series? We would be glad to send a speaker that could address various aging-related issues, such as:

- Dementia care
- The principles of Medicare
- The spirituality of aging
- How to select a retirement community
- Nutrition
- And more

While these topics would be of interest to seniors groups, we believe children of aging parents would also benefit.

If you are interested in a more detailed workshop on an aging-related topic, perhaps for caregivers of older adults, let us know and we will work to help meet your need.

PCSC is also a resource when churches need a supply preacher. Franklin Fant, our Director of Church Relations, is available to preach and lead Sunday worship, and he is glad to preach across the state. Our chaplains are also a great resource for pulpit supply, as Sunday worship at most of our communities takes place in the late afternoon.

Many church groups enjoy visiting our campuses for an in-depth tour and a complementary lunch. We are also glad to supply meeting space for our churches and the five South Carolina Presbyteries when the need arises.

Of course, as a ministry that was originally founded to serve Presbyterian older adults, this remains the central way we stand ready to support our churches: by providing an environment that promotes the social, physical and spiritual well-being of their members who live with us. Not only does this benefit these senior church members, it benefits those who care about them by giving peace of mind.

So how can PCSC help your church and its members? We are eager to hear from you!

Kathy Ligon, President and CEO

MOTHER'S DAY OFFERING UPDATE

Last year, Presbyterian Communities of South Carolina touched the lives of 47 residents who could no longer afford to live with us. As with every year, the Mother's Day Offering was a significant resource supporting our ability to provide shelter and nurture for these individuals, as well as give peace of mind to their families.

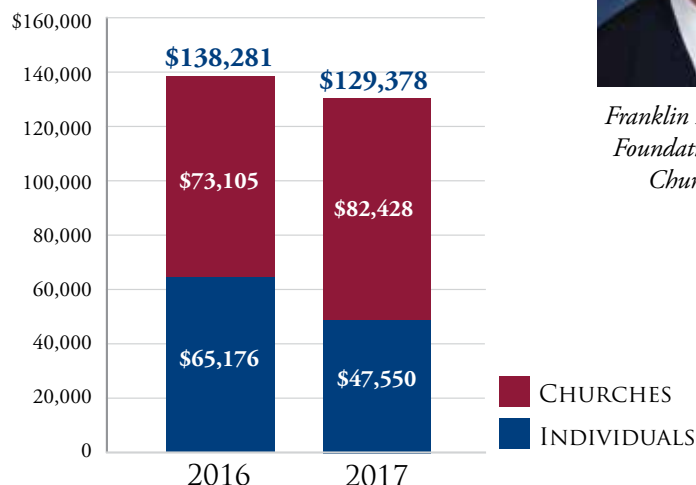

We are glad to share that through the 2017 Mother's Day Offering, generous churches and donors are once again giving strength to our commitment to care for those who outlive their life savings through no fault of their own.

As the chart below indicates, the results of the 2017 Mother's Day Offering to-date are comparable to 2016, particularly after considering that Mother's Day fell a week earlier in 2016. While individual gifts made directly to PCSC are lower so far this year, gifts received from churches have increased.

The amount collected for 2017 will continue to increase through the upcoming weeks. We ask churches to remit their collection of the Mother's Day Offering if they've not already done so. Likewise, we ask individuals who missed the Offering to consider making a gift today. You can use the enclosed envelope and may simply write "Mother's Day" on it if you would like us to count it toward this important campaign.

Many thanks to all the faithful churches and individuals who take up the banner of the Mother's Day Offering each year. One hundred percent of your gift makes a direct impact on charitable care for residents.

HAVE YOU CONSIDERED...?

The stock market has been on a tear, with the Russell 2000 Index up a whopping 17 percent for the last 12 months as I write this in mid-July. Many investors have significant capital gains in their portfolios, and using appreciated securities to make a charitable gift is a smart way to manage these gains. Because these gifts avoid capital gains taxes, it costs donors less to make the same size gift compared to cash.

If you're interested in making a gift of securities, please call the Foundation office at (803) 772-5885 (toll-free 1-800-842-4855) and we will give you or your broker the information needed to complete the gift.

OR PERHAPS YOU WOULD BE INTERESTED IN...

The next Out Loud endeavor required residents to venture outside. One is never too old to Go Outside and play, and that is just what they did. A field day was held, complete with games such as cornhole, basketball and ring toss, as well as lemonade and cookies! The day ended with some friendly competition and lots of laughs.

Speaking of laughs, who doesn't like to Laugh Out Loud every once in a while? To kick start everyone's giggle boxes, Chaplain Debbie Johnson led a workshop on The Benefits of Humor showing that, in addition to the cheering effects of a sincere chuckle, laughing can also improve health – it burns calories, releases endorphins and boosts the immune system! As humorist and motivational speaker Michael Pritchard once said, "We don't stop laughing because we grow old; we grow old because we stop laughing." In an effort to keep each other laughing, residents submitted their favorite jokes and funny stories so that they could be read aloud and shared with everyone. After each joke, a mixture of thunderous applause and belly-laughs resonated throughout the room. Most people would agree that laughter really is the best medicine.

The final Out Loud event included the wonderful gifts of music and song. The four- and five-year olds from the Big Blue Marble Daycare Center came to Sing Out Loud the songs they learned in school this past year. Once they finished singing through the ABC's, months of the year, and counted all of the "monkeys swinging in the trees," they greeted their audience with warm hugs and handmade, colored cards to thank each resident for listening. Later that same day, the residents had another opportunity to sing out loud when

Lucille Harper, daughter of resident Frances McSween, came by to tickle the ivories in Frampton Parlor and lead a sing-a-long. Singing, like laughing, also has many health benefits. Along with the joyful tunes came a time to remember happy memories and reminisce about the good ole days. Everyone left the parlor with a smile on their face.

The Age Out Loud theme opened doors and encouraged residents to try new things within the walls of the community and around the town of Clinton itself. Celebrating Older Americans Month is a great way to remember the importance of striving for wellness, focusing on independence, and paying attention to what today's older adults have to say. It is also important to remember that this celebration should not be confined to one month out of the year. We should all strive to Live Out Loud every single day!

EXCITEMENT IS BUILDING!

Presbyterian Communities of South Carolina continues to expand and enhance its communities in exciting ways. Key projects underway at the moment focus on building residential living apartments in two communities and building a new healthcare facility.

RESIDENTIAL LIVING

EASLEY

Construction continues on Great Oak Way, a wing of 12 new Independent Living apartments. The project is expected to be completed for move-ins this Fall, and eight apartments have already been claimed. The apartments come in one- and two-bedroom options and will offer a breadth of amenities, such as spacious, open kitchens; laundry rooms equipped with washers and dryers; and covered patios and decks.

The Foothills Retirement Community will be hosting a special event on September 7 at 11 a.m. for those who would like to learn more about these new apartments. Lunch is included. Please call Cathy Stuckey at (864) 859-3367 or toll-free (866) 315-4724 or email her at FoothillsMarketing@PresComm.org for more information.

SUMMERVILLE

At The Village at Summerville, 18 new Independent Living apartments are also underway. This three-story building, called Grand Oak Way, will also offer one- and two-bedroom options and similar amenities to the new apartments at Foothills (see left). These residences are expected to be available for move-ins early 2018, and a number are already spoken for.

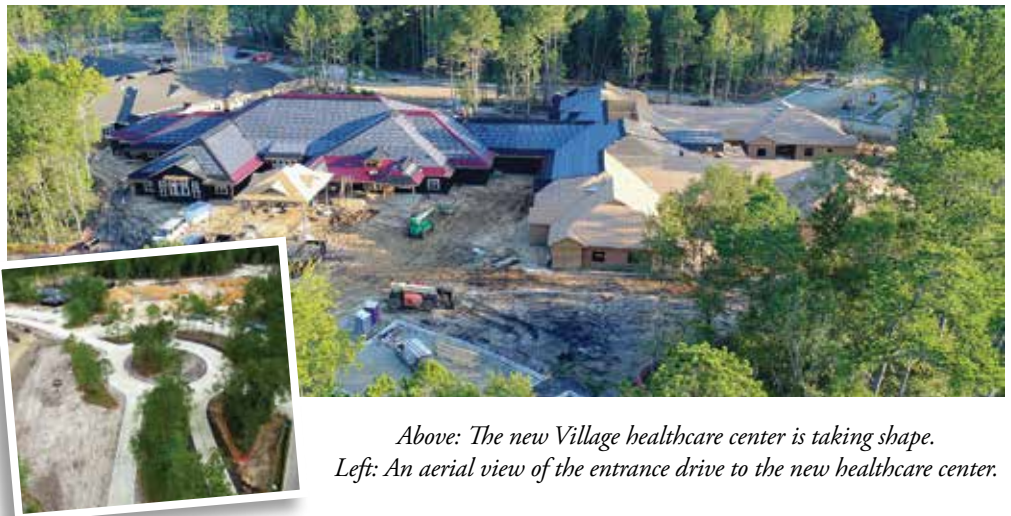

For those interested in learning more, The Village will be hosting a lunch event on August 24 beginning at 11 a.m. For more information, call Jessa Carter at (843) 873-2550 or toll-free (866) 315-4725 or email SummervilleMarketing@PresComm.org.

HEALTHCARE

SUMMERVILLE

Progress continues on the new, 88-bed healthcare center at The Village at Summerville. It is anticipated that the project will be finished in early 2018 and that The Village will begin moving permanent healthcare and short-term rehab residents into the center in late spring of 2018.

A VARIETY OF WAYS TO BLESS

Each of us desires to make a positive contribution toward the well-being of others. This happens most powerfully when we find a connection between what is meaningful to ourselves, as well as helpful to others.

There are a variety of ways the gift you make to Presbyterian Communities of South Carolina can bless the lives of seniors and local staff. Below are some examples of how your generosity can support this ministry in a way that is right for you.

GIFTS FOR CHARITABLE CARE

Charitable Care Fund: Through the ongoing use of this fund, residents who have outlived their financial resources through no fault of their own continue to live at PCSC.

Resident Aid Endowment: If requested, your gift can be placed in the Resident Aid Endowment. Earnings from the endowment are used to meet future charitable care needs in perpetuity.

GIFTS FOR THE BENEFIT OF STAFF

The compassionate employees at our communities work hard to give the best care to our residents. Below are opportunities to thank and support them.

Employee Emergency Fund: Sometimes an employee encounters a financial or health crisis that is beyond their means. The emergency fund at each community is used to provide assistance for those demonstrating a genuine need.

Employee Appreciation Fund: The Employee Appreciation Fund conveys gratitude for the service and special care rendered by our exceptional staff at each community. Gifts to the Employee Appreciation Fund are distributed to employees and their families at Christmastime.

Scholarships: Funds have been established at some communities to assist staff in their educational pursuits for advanced certificates and higher degree attainment. These funds also increase opportunities for staff to attend conferences and classes that teach the latest innovations in senior care and services.

GIFTS FOR LIFE ENRICHMENT

Presbyterian Communities seeks to fully integrate wellness into the daily activities of those who call PCSC home. For the benefit of residents, each community has:

- A Chaplain's Fund to enhance spiritual enrichment.
- A Life Enrichment Fund to boost opportunities for intellectual and social well-being.
- A Wellness Fund to augment resources for physical health.

Gifts to these funds may be given for general use or for specified purposes.

If you would like more information about these and other giving opportunities, please contact Franklin Fant, Director of Foundation Services and Church Relations, at (803) 772-5885 (toll-free 1-800-842-4855) or email Franklin.Fant@PresComm.org.

A remittance envelope is provided in this newsletter if you would like to make a special gift to benefit the ministry of Presbyterian Communities. Credit card donations are also accepted through our website at PresCommunities.org.

Your generosity and support are deeply appreciated!

OLD AND YOUNG TOGETHER: FOOTHILLS COMMUNITY MENTORS COLLEGE INTERNS

The Foothills Retirement Community in Easley has been coordinating a college summer internship program in partnership with Foothills Presbytery and local Presbyterian Churches. Through this ministry, staff and residents have engaged with interns in a mutually beneficial relationship of giving and receiving.

The program is designed to mentor student interns from Upstate colleges as they seek to discern possible options for God's vocation and call in their lives. This is the second year of the program, and it is being led by Foothills Chaplain Joseph Gaston, who helped initiate it last year while serving at John Knox Presbyterian Church in Greenville.

Called "Listening for the Sacred Voice of Vocation and Call," the program is designed to give the interns an opportunity to gain professional experience. Through that experience and shared reflection with program facilitators, mentors and one another, the students have an opportunity to explore their gifts and how God may be leading them to use those gifts. The Forum for Theological Exploration provided a seed grant for this ministry of vocation and call for young adults.

The racially diverse group was made up of seven students. Each was assigned an "Eli Elder," a Foothills Community resident or staff member who volunteered to spend time mentoring the interns through prayer and conversation. This ministry of discernment allows residents to share their wisdom and life experience with a young person and enjoy the satisfaction of making a real contribution to the intern's life. The name "Eli Elder" is meant to recall the Israelite priest Eli, who mentored his successor, the prophet Samuel, beginning in Samuel's childhood (1 Samuel 1-4).

Three of the interns were assigned to work at the Foothills Community this summer, where Michael Adcock has been working as Chaplain Intern. Resident Jean Wallis noted that, "He was very knowledgeable with Bible Study." Prior to Michael's first time leading Vespers, Randy Kowalski, former Presbyterian minister and now resident shared, "I have been praying for him because I remember how scared I was when I preached for the first time!"

McKiver Smith's work as Activities Intern has focused on a photo gallery that depicts the life and mission of the Foothills Community. "Everybody has enjoyed his photographs used in the Chapel services and newsletter," said resident Dorcas Lindsay.

Ben Matthews has worked as Music Intern both at the community and at First Presbyterian Church of Spartanburg. As part of his work, Ben led weekly sing-alongs that were greatly enjoyed by the residents. One even concluded with a spontaneous, joyful expansion as two residents took up the piano afterwards and additional residents joined in the singing.

Joseph has served as mentor for all three, with residents Frank and Laura Sutherland serving as assistant mentors. Foothills residents serving as Eli Elders to all of the interns include Ann and Jim Black, Julie Brice, Jane Hart, Bob Hazen, and Cathy Redd. Staff members serving as Eli Elders are Marcy Dickson and Birdie Smith.

The experience of the Foothills Community and the interns this summer recalls Psalm 148:12-13:

*Young men and women alike,
old and young together!
Let them praise the name of the LORD,
for his name alone is exalted;

Donor Testimonials...

WHY AND HOW THEY GIVE

By design, Presbyterian Communities of South Carolina relies on generous donors, welcoming them to share in its mission to enrich the lives of older adults. It is particularly special for PCSC, then, when its supporters are willing to share how and why they give to its ministry. As these stories reveal, there are different ways of giving, but there is a way to give that suits each one's circumstances.

"MY TURN"

Why He Gives

As a resident of the Foothills Retirement Community in Easley, Curtis Davis is not just a donor, he is a grateful resident. Curtis and his late wife, Ellen, have been generous donors in the past. When asked about his current motivation to give, he expressed his deep appreciation for the Foothills Community. "I really enjoy living here," he shared, "and there is no way I'd live anywhere else."

Not long after he moved in, he said, he realized that the generosity of those who preceded him had helped found PCSC and the Foothills Community. "The ones who came before, the one who had big dreams, made this place possible," he said.

How He Has Given

This year, Mr. Davis made a special gift from an IRA using a "qualified charitable distribution" (QCD). IRA owners are required to begin taking withdrawals from their IRA after age 70 ½. Of course, this also means paying taxes on the withdrawal.

"I didn't need the funds, however, for living expenses," he shared. So instead of taking a withdrawal and paying taxes on it, he contacted the institution holding the IRA and arranged instead for a QCD to come to PCSC Foundation. QCD's can offset required withdrawals dollar for dollar, and the owner may contribute up to $100,000 per year in this manner, even if this exceeds the minimum required withdrawal.

Reflecting on his desire to make this gift from an IRA, he said, "Someone did this for me ... now I want to do it for someone else. It's my turn to 'pass it on.'"

PCSC is grateful to these and so many other generous donors who keep our ministry healthy and vital. If you are interested in learning more about these or other ways of making a gift to PCSC that suits you and your circumstances, please contact Franklin Fant in the Foundation office at (803) 772-5885 (toll-free 1-800-842-4855) or email him at Franklin.Fant@prescomm.org.

“FAITHFUL GIVER”

Why She Gives

For many years, Gertrude Hall has believed in what PCSC does. She has seen her brother, the late Morgan Coker, as well as many of her fellow church members, enjoy living at PCSC's communities. “It is a needed mission,” she said, referring to PCSC's ministry to seniors.

How She Has Given

Regularity and consistency have been Mrs. Hall's trademarks over the years. This pattern began in 1983, when a capital campaign was launched in the old Congaree Presbytery to build the Columbia Presbyterian Community. A fund drive was held at Forest Lake Presbyterian Church to support the campaign, and Mrs. Hall made a pledge, “even though I had a daughter in college,” she said. “After all, anyone can give a little bit.

“After my pledge was finished, I realized that the contributions had not been burdensome, so I continued to support PCSC regularly.” Supporting PCSC in a disciplined manner was natural for her, she added. “I was a school teacher, and was raised by school teachers, and school teachers are, by nature, disciplined.”

“FREE TO GIVE”

Why She Gives

Maymie Lou Spearman has lived at the Florence Presbyterian Community for more than 11 years. When she first arrived, it was under challenging circumstances. “My husband, Allan, had Alzheimer's, and I could no longer care for him at home, as well as take care of the house,” she said. “Living in a cottage here, I was better able to look after him, until his health declined further and he needed to move to the healthcare center.”

She feels that she has continued to benefit from living at the Community since his passing. “I firmly believe that I am far more independent now than I would be if I were still living in our house.”

“The Florence Community really is my home now,” she added, “and that sense of home extends beyond my cottage to the public areas, as well.”

“After my pledge was finished, I realized that the contributions had not been burdensome, so I continued to support PCSC regularly.”

How She Has Given

Mrs. Spearman has expressed her appreciation for PCSC and its mission through the use of a charitable gift annuity (CGA). These instruments provide a number of benefits, including a regular cash stream to the donor.

CGA's work like this: A donor makes a gift of cash or securities under an agreement whereby the donor receives future income for the rest of his or her life. Any residual leftover comes to the charity. The payments are calculated based on the donor's life expectancy. There are also tax benefits. A portion of the gift is tax-deductible, and the annuity payments are partially tax-free, based on IRS calculations. Capital gain taxes can also be partially avoided if the CGA is established with appreciated securities.

“In my case, the annuities replaced bonds that had matured at a time when no others were available paying good interest rates, so the gift was also a good investment,” explained Mrs. Spearman. “For a woman in her 80's, the tax benefits are significant. Now I receive the annuities partially tax-free until I deplete the annuity portion of the CGA. Additional payments will become taxable if I live so long.”

She is particularly glad to be at a stage in her life where she can make a gift like a CGA. “I am so glad to be free to give to PCSC and to other causes in a way I have wanted to for many years.”

30 YEARS OF SERVICE

Long tenures of employment with one organization are particularly rare these days. It is noteworthy, then, that PCSC President and CEO Kathy Ligon reached her 30th anniversary of employment with PCSC this year.

Kathy's service was recognized at the May meeting of the Board of Trustees. Dr. Stacey Brennan, Board Chair, presented her with a plaque and praised her service to the ministry. "Take a walk with Kathy through the halls of any of our communities and you will see her mobbed by our residents, chatting and smiling, while recalling nearly each person's name! We at PCSC are truly privileged to have a conscientious, learned and caring Chief Executive." She also noted Kathy's focus, energy and optimism.

Dr. Brennan added, "Kathy, thank you for all you do, have done, and will do. Most of all, thank you for keeping our mission active before our eyes: to be 'a compassionate Christian ministry dedicated to enriching the quality of life for seniors of all faiths.'"

THE PLANNED GIFT – AN INTENTIONAL LEGACY OF CARING

Some charitable gifts to Presbyterian Communities of South Carolina are made out of joyful and generous spontaneity. Others are made only after a period of careful thought, prayer and planning.

Among the gifts in this second category are those that come to PCSC after the donor's death: gifts made through one's will, a trust, an IRA, a life insurance policy or other means. These kinds of gifts, by which one leaves an intentional legacy of caring, are commonly referred to as planned gifts, because they typically involve some degree of extra "planning ahead."

Some planned gifts are relatively easy to make. For instance, it is fairly simple to make PCSC Foundation the beneficiary of a life insurance policy or an IRA. All that is needed is to fill out a form provided by the insurance company or financial institution. Others planned gifts may require the services of an attorney.

PCSC values every gift received, but planned gifts are particularly meaningful simply because in aggregate they represent the lion's share of the donations received in any given year.

Would you consider being one of those who leave an intentional legacy of caring for seniors? If you would like more information, please contact Franklin Fant, Director of Foundation Services and Church Relations, at (803) 772-5885 (toll-free 1-800-842-4855) or email him at Franklin.Fant@PresComm.org. You can also send in the envelope enclosed in this newsletter and check the box requesting information about estate planning.

THE GOOD SAMARITAN SOCIETY

The Good Samaritan Society recognizes the generosity of people who establish future gifts through their wills or other estate plans for the residents of Presbyterian Communities of South Carolina.

Who is a member of The Good Samaritan Society?

Anyone who notifies Presbyterian Communities of South Carolina in writing that a provision has been made for the mission and ministry of Presbyterian Communities through a bequest or other estate plan (including, but not limited to, charitable gift annuities, charitable trusts, life insurance, retirement plans) will be a member.

Why should I notify PCSC of my plans?

First, we want to be able to thank you for your generosity.

Second, notification allows us to make sure we understand how you intend for your gift to be used. Please let PCSC know of your planned gift by contacting the PCSC Foundation office at (803) 772-5885 (toll-free 1-888-842-4855). You can also use the enclosed envelope to notify us.

How are members identified?

Your membership in The Good Samaritan Society will be announced in Community Connections. The example you set by planning a gift will serve as a witness to others. We fully respect the privacy of donors, however, and will keep your membership anonymous if you so choose.

Members of the Good Samaritan Society

PCSC is deeply grateful to the members listed below and to others who have chosen to remain anonymous. Your gifts will make a lasting and significant impact on this ministry and the lives of those PCSC serves.

MEMORY CAREGIVER SUPPORT GROUP AT COLUMBIA

Being a caregiver for someone with dementia is a difficult task that is both physically and emotionally draining. To make things more challenging, caregivers are often unprepared and untrained for the task when they take it on. Key resources they need to be better equipped include helpful information and a place to share their experiences with others and be encouraged.

The Columbia Presbyterian Community now sponsors a monthly memory support group for caregivers. Meredith Scott, Supervisor of the Jasmine Place memory support center at the community, leads the group.

“The group is not just for memory support, but for caregivers of seniors in general who need a safe, secure place to share what they are going through, as well as learn how to cope and make things better,” she says.

The Alzheimer’s Association estimates that there are more than 300,000 caregivers for Alzheimer’s patients alone in South Carolina. This statistic shows how urgent the need is across the state for support groups like the one offered at the Columbia Community.

“Any caregiver or family member who would like to attend is welcome,” explained Meredith. “Some group members are actively caring for a spouse or parent. Others have a loved one experiencing the early stages of dementia and they are readying themselves for the future,” when memory issues will have worsened.

Some meetings are organized around providing education, some include a presentation by an outside speaker, but according to Meredith, the aspect most valued by caregivers is the opportunity to decompress. It is a great blessing for group members to share with others who are going through the same challenges they are.

What is most challenging? “Breaking down the stigma associated with dementia-related illness and helping people understand when it’s time to take active steps to provide appropriate care for loved ones,” she said.

She does find her work very rewarding. “I especially enjoy knowing we are making a difference in people’s lives. We cannot change the fact that someone has a disease, but we can improve how the situation is addressed and experienced. Life does not end with dementia.”

WANDERING IN WASHINGTON

One of the South's best kept secrets, Washington, Georgia, has more antebellum homes per capita than any other city in the United States. Thanks to Clinton residents Jo and Buzzy Randall, it's no longer a secret to The Clinton Presbyterian Community!

Buzzy and Jo grew up in Washington and spent a lifetime investing themselves in the town they love so dearly. On a recent trip by Clinton residents to Washington, which the Randalls helped instigate, they were eager to share their story and their "stomping grounds" with other residents.

The activity bus turned into a tour bus the moment they entered the town. Buzzy claimed "shotgun" to give driving directions and Jo took the microphone to tell stories introducing the visitors to Washington's rich history.

At two churches, residents were greeted by friends of the Randall's and treated to tours. The First Presbyterian Church of Washington dates prior to 1790 and its sanctuary, built in 1825, is the oldest non-residential building in Washington. The Episcopal Church was built a few years later and is adorned with intricate stained glass windows that were crafted by the famed Wilbur H. Burnham Studios and feature unique royal blue hues, which are considered to be a Burnham trademark.

After lunch at Southern Scratch and some shopping, the bus headed out for the final leg of the tour that included various architectural styles from grand Greek Revivals to dainty Victorians. Clinton residents were welcomed inside the historic Wagner House by the owners, who walked them through each room of the gorgeous antebellum home, sharing stories of the house's interesting past.

RESIDENTS' CHOICE AWARD FOR BEAUTIFUL YARD

Residents of the Clinton Community turned afternoon outings into life-enriching experiences for the entire town this summer through The Residents' Choice Award for Beautiful Yard.

Each week residents nominated a new yard that they felt deserved recognition for its landscaping. New residents were able to explore and enjoy the sights of Clinton, while others were able to enjoy the stroll down memory lane.

The community never expected such a warm reception from the town and the excitement that this activity would bring. For weeks, the town buzzed with anticipation to see which new yard would display the Presbyterian Community's signs proclaiming that week's "Beautiful Yard."

The weekly bus rides provided participating residents an opportunity to feel involved in their community, be included in making decisions, engage in meaningful social interactions with friends, and, of course, bring joy to the local winners! The Clinton Presbyterian Community is grateful for the chance to give back to the town it loves.

RESIDENT'S LEGACY HELPS COLUMBIA COMMUNITY "SWING INTO SPRING"

Columbia resident Frank Dieringer (left) was well-known for his fun-loving attitude and his enjoyment of parties and other social events. It is not surprising, then, that when he remembered PCSC in his estate, he instructed that some of his gift be used for "activities or events that would bring joy to residents."

Frank's intentions were carried out in early April when his gift was used to help fund an elegant "Spring Swing" dinner and dance event at the Columbia Community. Special heavy hors d'oeuvres and beverages were served, which residents and their guests enjoyed with special china, glassware and tableware. The Capital City Big Band, an approximately 20-piece ensemble, provided outstanding music that everyone enjoyed dancing and listening to.

Frank's daughter, Cindy Dieringer, was in attendance and Frank was recognized and remembered during the event, both for his convivial character and his generosity. The Columbia Community looks forward to additional events graciously provided by Frank's legacy.

CELEBRATING THOSE WHO LIVE & WORK IN A SKILLED NURSING SETTING

This spring, The Columbia Presbyterian Community celebrated National Nursing Home Week with five days of special events for those living and working in its Cassels Healthcare Center. The 2017 theme of this national event was "The Spirit of America," to celebrate our beautiful country and the diversity of people within it. The events of the week included outreach to the Babcock Center, visits by Mary Kay representatives, a horseshoe competition, live performances of mountain music and Gospel music, an ice cream truck, and other fun-filled activities.

The week culminated with a community picnic, as well as a display of vintage cars by the Chevy Car Club, blue grass music, a wheel-chair parade, and a dunk tank. Columbia Executive Director Jason Basile even took his turn in the tank!

PCSC is grateful to the many volunteers who contributed to this special week and recognizes the involvement of many staff members across a number of departments, who helped make this celebration a success.

The Columbia Community recognized Wellness Week in late June with a competition between residents to see who could engage in the most wellness activities. Residents kept a log of any Community-sponsored activities they attended in any dimension of wellness to earn points. There were a number of activities offered, including Zumba, a hula hoop class, and a Nu-Step relay that was also a fundraiser for the Alzheimer's Association. At the end of the week, the residents with the most cumulative points were recognized with a prize and the prestigious title of Mr. and Mrs. Wellness. Congratulations to Lily Bradley and Sally Gandy, who tied in first place for women, and Ron Jacobs, who was crowned Mr. Wellness!

RECYCLED WEDDING DRESS FASHION SHOW

The staff at The Village at Summerville recently held a fashion show featuring wedding dresses made from recycled materials. All departments were represented in the friendly competition. The Therapy Department was crowned the winner, with its entry of a paper plate wedding dress worn by Dr. Kristen Greene.

CRAFT FAIR SUPPORTS EMPLOYEE EMERGENCY FUND

Residents at The Village recently pulled their talents together for a great cause. At the Spring Craft Fair you could find hand-painted ceramics, various knitted items, artwork, jewelry, and quilts by the late Muriel McLean, who lived at The Village. Proceeds raised were generously donated to The Village's Employee Emergency Fund, which is used to assist employees facing a financial crisis that is beyond their means. Many thanks to the residents who made a purchase to support a great cause!

IN MEMORY'S KITCHEN

Several months ago Village resident Werner Will asked Steve Scranton, Dining Services Director at The Village, about doing a special presentation with him about a book, In Memory's Kitchen.

The book is a collection of recipes that were written by women in Terezin Concentration Camp. The recipes for special dishes were written down, not so that they could be prepared at the camp, but that they might be saved and handed down to their grandchildren. Miraculously, the recipes survived and made their way to the daughter of one of the prisoners.

Steve chose some of the recipes and prepared them as part of his monthly cooking demonstration. Ironically, this happened to fall during Holocaust Awareness Week. Mr. Will presented the history of the book and concentration camps while the recipes were prepared. There was an English translation for each recipe but they were written in decagrams and other terms that had to be converted and interpreted. The items made were Murber Strudel, Kartoffel Salat, Zwiebel Kuchen and Erdapfel Dalken, which the residents enjoyed sampling.

In April, The Village at Summerville had the privilege of hosting the wedding of Olivia Pritchard and Jim Sharpton. Olivia's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claudius Pritchard, have been residents of The Village since June of 2011, while Jim's mother, Mrs. Janice Sharpton, officially became a resident in June of 2017. The ceremony was performed by The Village's Chaplain, The Rev. Achim Daffin, and the reception was catered by the dining services team.
