Meadow Oaks Positive Inspirations

What is love? Love can be looked in many ways such as loving someone or something that you dearly value. Most importantly in individual should learn to love themselves spiritually, mentally and physically in order to love others, it shows that we truly understand the concept. Take this month to explore within yourself what is it that you love about yourself and also wear it proudly. Love is a beautiful feeling!

In What Way Was Love Expressed by You or From a Loved One?

Edith ~ " If you only knew my husband, I was lucky to have him stay with me all the time"

Freddie ~ "Box of See's candies, some hugs, and kisses."

Clara ∼ "He sparked my fire"

Jack ∼ "The first date I had with my wife was on Valentines Day. It went well because we eventually got married."

Boots ~ "Every Valentines Day my husband, who was a musician, would sing a special song to me."

George ~ "I give her a push here and there all the time"

Alice ~ "My husband was always very sweet and romantic. He didn't need a holiday to be a sweetheart, he already was a sweetheart."

Rhett ~ "I bought her a whole new wardrobe before going on a trip to the Philippines"

Irene "We would spend the day together and that was all we needed. I loved him very much."

Happy New Year to All

Meet and Greet Rosie

Born and raised right here in Roseville in1932, Rossi has been a local all of her life. One of 4 children, Rosie is still close with her siblings and has valued her family ever since. Mother to 3 wonderful daughters, grandmother to 7, and great-grandmother to 2, Rosie family is big, and she loves them all immensely. Although she lived in Oklahoma for less than a year with her husband at one point, Rosie has called Roseville her home.

Working on McClellan Air Force Base for 30 years as a communication supervisor, Rosie loved her job and working with people from different places. Rosie enjoys her time with reading and watching TV, especially mystery shows. You will usually find Rossi at bingo since she is a big fan of the game.
