

GREAT ENTERTAINMENT ALL MONTH LONG!

Phil & Laurie Adams

Saturday, February 3rd • 7:00 p.m.

Phil and Laurie have been professional musicians and composers for over 30 years. They love musical theatre and take great joy in performing their favorites for you, including some great selections from Fiddler on the Roof which will be included in their show on the 3rd.

Chet and Marlene Solender

Sunday, February 4th • 7:00 p.m.

The Solenders are music historians and entertainers who use their unique entertainment skills to tell the stories of composers, lyricists and Broadway figures, punctuated by the music of the time. With Chet on piano and Marlene providing the vocals they fill the room with story and song.

John Chase

Tuesday, February 6th • 7:00 p.m.

The "Robert Goulet of South Florida" returns with another very entertaining show. John has had leading roles in numerous musicals such as Oklahoma, Fiddler On the Roof, Fantastiks, Man of La Mancha and many more.

Glenda Grainer and Gary Lawrence

Saturday, February 10th • 7:00 p.m.

Born and raised in London, Glenda Grainger sings and is completely fluent in French, Spanish and Italian and incorporates all of these languages in her act. She has had hit records and many TV appearances. She is accompanied by well known pianist and entertainer Gary Lawrence.

Patrich Bell—"Opera Kadabra"

Tuesday, February 13th • 7:00 p.m.

Patrich Bell is a world-class singer and magician from Los Angeles. His show, "Opera-Kadabra" combines real, live opera with interactive comedy magic and classic Broadway showtunes. You'll hear familiar opera arias, while laughing and applauding with the interactive comedy, magic and classic Broadway music and standards that you'll love to sing along with.

Don Stansfield

Saturday, February 17th • 7:00 p.m.

Don Stansfield comes from New York where he attended the American Musical and Dramatic Academy, a prestigious institution which has trained many of today's top Broadway and television stars. He has appeared in numerous New York City productions—on and off Broadway.

Don's clear strong tenor/baritone voice will transport you back in time as he sings the signature songs chronicling the lives, antics and careers of three of the most famous singers of the 20th century. He will bring you back to a time when the crooners captured the hearts of America.

Ashley Cooper

Wednesday, February 21st • 7:00 p.m.

Ashley has the look of a Rat Packer, pipes like Nat King Cole, and when he shakes his hips, the ladies swoon. His show is part song, part dance, part ballet and part acrobatics. It's fresh yet familiar. His love of performing is written all over his face! Join "Ashley The Entertainer" as he dances and sings his way through the songs of the 40s, 50s and 60s with grace, class and a style all his own. You'll be reminded of Sammy Davis, Fred Astaire and Nat King Cole all at the same time. You'll laugh, you'll cry, you'll sing out loud and you'll be dancing in your chair!

Richard Beavis

Saturday, February 24th

Richard began his career in his native Wales, where he won the Victor Ludorum Award at the Festival of Gwent, becoming the youngest vocalist to ever receive this prestigious award. He was then asked to join the BBC Welsh Chorus where he performed various choral works, televised both nationally and internationally. Richard branched out into the world of musical theatre, won Sky TV's Star Search and performed for the Royal Family at the London Palladium.

Barbara Brighton

Wednesday, February 28th • 7:00 p.m.

Barbara is an accomplished actress as well as a singer-comedienne. She has had a rich television career and her singing and acting abilities took her to Broadway. Her credits there include How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying, Camelot and The Unsinkable Molly Brown. She has also done tours in Australia, Japan and South America and we're proud to welcome her back to our stage.

STAR PERFORMANCE!

Wednesday, February 14th • 2:30 p.m.

The moment we've all been waiting for has arrived... the Grand Re-Opening of our spectacular, newly renovated Clubhouse and Theater. We have a stupendous day of celebration planned for you. The day is easy to remember, Wednesday, February 14th...yes, Valentine's Day!

There'll be a whole lot of loving and a whole lot of shaking going on! The loving we hope will be you loving our beautiful new Clubhouse and the special gourmet dinner which will be served in honor of the occasion.

The shaking will be supplied by our Star Entertainer, the one and only Chris MacDonald. His Memories of Elvis in Concert is a tribute to the King of Rock-n-Roll.

The show is not a parody or an overdone impersonation of Elvis Presley. It is a natural, heartfelt tribute to an American icon and his music. Chris has been honored as the only tribute artist hired by Elvis Presley Enterprises to perform at Graceland's Heartbreak Hotel and has also headlined with Elvis' own original backup group, the Jordanaires.

Don't miss this amazing show at 2:30 p.m. on the 14th. This is a once-in-a-lifetime chance to see one of America's finest tribute performers on our newly renovated stage right here at Forest Trace.

This will be a Valentine's Day to remember for sure!
