Caregivers Enjoyed a Night of Laughter with Free Comedy Show

CHERRY HILL, NJ, APRIL 24—Symphony at Cherry Hill hosted a comedy relief night free of charge for caregivers in need of a break, at The Crowne Plaza on Wednesday, April 25.

Co-Sponsors, Bratton Scott Estate and Elder Care Attorneys, Moorestown Visiting Nurses and Hospice, and Fox Rehabilitation teamed up with Symphony at Cherry Hill to make this night possible. Working with families each day, the sponsors recognized the growing number of caregivers who may be feeling overwhelmed and wanted to offer a fun night out where they can take their mind off of their daily stressors.

Comedians, Scott Friedman from the Borgata, Tim Grill from Dangerfield's and Broadway Comedy Club in NYC, and Julia Scott from America's Got Talent headlined the night. Over Seventy caregivers enjoyed appetizers and cocktails as they laughed the night away.

James Santana, Executive Director of Symphony at Cherry Hill "Everyone had a great time, it was so nice to be able to give back and see caregivers take their mind off of things and enjoy a night of laughter. We hope to make this a yearly event."

Symphony at Cherry Hill is a standalone Memory Support Assisted Living Community opening in Summer 2018. Symphony will combine luxurious yet comfortable accommodations with a holistic approach to wellness. Our staff is available 24 hours a day to help in activities of daily living such as medication management, bathing, grooming, dressing and so much more.
