Welcome to the Memory Care Director Role Joanne!

Many of you have known Joanne Zertuche (zer-too-chey) for over 8 years! First as a Resident Aide/Med Tech, then as a supervisor and as of last November, an LPN! Last month, Joanne lovingly accepted the role of the new Memory Care Director!!

Joanne has a passion and love for seniors and their families that comforts the hearts of others at all times! She's a GREAT LPN and wanted to share a few things with you about herself!

- She was born and raised in Gibsonton, Fl.
- She is married with one child and still lives in Gibsonton!
- She attends church regularly and enjoys Christian music!
- She loves to travel and only has about 10 more states to go before being able to say she's seen them all!
- She LOVES ANYTHING GUMMY!
- She's is one of Bertha's (our receptionist) SIX children and LOVES FAMILY MORE THAN GUMMIES …. MAYBE!

WELCOME Joanne!
