The Community That Treats You Like Family!

Patriotism and Retirement

How the two can go together perfectly.

The Fourth is a time we all get a little nostalgic. Maybe you or someone close to you served (or is serving) our country. Or perhaps you simply appreciate the values our country was founded on. Regardless, it's a time to celebrate – and bring people closer together.

Ways to mark the day:

- Invite family and friends to enjoy the Fourth with you.
Have a picnic!
- Relax inside with friends and enjoy your favorite movie classic.
- Pull out your photo albums and share memories with friends.
- Play a popular board game.
Or get a game of Patriotic Bingo going.
- Gather with friends for a red-white-and- blue craft/food/music day.
- Get a group together and send thank you cards to those currently serving.
- Share your own experiences of serving.

While a day of celebration, the Fourth can produce a few painful memories for some. If it happens, try to keep the focus positive and help others look to the future with optimism.

- Think of all the good we've achieved as a family, community and country.
- Maintain a sense of humor.
- Share encouraging stories with friends and family.

How can we help you to celebrate? We'd love to plan the day around your unique ideas!

Activity Highlight

In the month of June we celebrated National CNA Week. State Street Assisted Living poured some love on some of the hardest working staff in our facility. They pick up needs, they get mandated and they do the work that is not easy to do. Also they do the work that alot of us can't do. For this I send our sincere gratitude to the nursing assistants of State Street Assisted Living and to all CNA's worldwide. You make us shine! Thanks for all you do!

Resident Spotlight

Ms. Ryan has been with us a little over 6 months and she is a joy. Ms. Ryan comes from London, England but has lived in the states for over 30 years. Ms. Ryan has worked for the US Air Force and retired from there. Her accent is still so strong, you'd think she just moved here.

Ms. Doreen loves to tell stories of her days in England. To hear her tell them makes you want to hear more and more. She is quiet but enjoys the company of her neighbors and makes us all feel happy in her presence. For these reasons you are our July Star Resident.
