A Note from the Executive Director

We have great news for Pacifica Senior Living Ocala! Suzanne Doerzapf has accepted the position as Executive Director. Suzanne is well-known to Ocala and this community as she was Sales Director for over a year and has most recently been a Regional Sales Director. She is a Licensed Practical Nurse and has worked with Senior's most of her career and loves what she does!

Suzanne, has in the past expressed her desire to be an Executive Director and was very excited to hear of this opportunity. She will be a great leader for this team.

Please join me in welcoming Suzanne back to Ocala. Please join us in a Welcome Coffee Hour on August 2, 2018.

August is

Psoriasis

Awareness Month

Psoriasis is the most prevalent autoimmune disease in the U.S., affecting as many as 7.5 million Americans. It occurs when the immune system sends out faulty signals resulting in painful red, scaly patches on the skin that bleed and itch. Psoriasis has been linked to other serious conditions, including psoriatic arthritis, cardiovascular disease and stroke. Psoriasis isn't contagious, but awareness is.
