

MBK Senior Living Named One of Best Workplace in Aging Services Nationwide

IRVINE, Calif. (September 27, 2018) – Released today by Fortune magazine, MBK Senior Living (MSL) has been named in top 50 “Best Workplaces in Aging Services” list among senior housing and at-home care service companies nationwide. Of those ranked, only 30 were senior housing providers. The list was determined through data received from more than 160,000 industry employee surveys by Fortune magazine’s research partner, Great Place to Work®.

“The senior living industry is filled with quality companies who seek to provide seniors with supportive environments and caring services as they age. To be named among the top in this competitive field is truly an honor,” said Jeff Fischer, president of MBK Senior Living. “I’m incredibly proud of our company culture that puts emphasis on honoring, respecting and supporting both our residents and employees.”

With more than two decades of experience in the senior living and health and human services industry, MSL has earned a solid reputation for its enduring company culture based on MSL’s pursuit, purpose, principles and core values that is embodied in “Our Commitment”. More than a mission statement, this commitment is practiced daily and has continuously yielded results, including happier, healthier residents, invigorated and enhanced lifestyles, increased self-esteem, well-trained and professional team members, caring and compassionate team members, genuine relationships, trust, respect, loyalty and more.

“This award could not have been possible without the dedication of our team members to ‘Our Commitment’,” said Fischer. “Each day our enthusiastic team members come to work with a passion for excellence, focused on exceeding the quality, service and care expectations of those we serve – and it shows!”
