

A TRADITIONAL PASSOVER OBSERVANCE

Celebrate Passover at Forest Trace

In accordance with tradition, we will be hosting our Forest Trace family-style Seder on the first night of Passover—this year on Friday, April 19th.

Cantor William Wood will be leading our Pesach service. Here in Assisted Living, we will have our special observance at 5:00 p.m. On behalf of the staff and management, Pacific Forest Trace wishes you a joyous Passover observance.

Cantor Bill Wood

We are pleased to welcome back Cantor Bill Wood to officiate at our Seder service this year. Cantor Bill grew up in the Bronx, New York. His mother knew he had some musical talent at a very young age as his singing debut was at Caroline's Luncheonette in The Hamptons at just six years old; he received a standing ovation. He performed in regional opera companies following college and also sang with the late Cantor Herman Malmaood at the Concord Hotel in the Catskills for Passover and the High Holidays.

Cantor Wood sang for the High Holidays at Temple Beth El in Borough Park, Brooklyn, under the direction of the late Oscar Julius, the Dean of Jewish Choir Conductors, with Cantor Moshe Stern. Both of these exceptional cantorial experiences resulted in Cantor Wood attending Hebrew Union College, where he was ordained and received his Masters in Sacred Music.

Bill Wood is Cantor Emeritus of Central Synagogue of Nassau County, Rockville Centre, New York where he served as Chazzan for 16 years. Currently, he is the Choir Director at Temple Anshei Shalom as well as running Shabbat Services around South Florida and here at Forest Trace on alternate Friday evenings.

Please join Cantor Wood for the first night of Seder as we observe another traditional Jewish holiday celebration.

EASTER Showtime!

Holiday Show with Steve Leeds

Sunday, April 21st • 6:00 p.m.

Steve Leeds is a talented performer who hails from New York. He has a history of performing at popular New York City hotels like the Plaza, the Waldorf and, of course, The Rainbow Room—the famous nightclub on the 65th floor of the NBC Building in Rockefeller Center.

Steve is an engaging singer who spotlights the classics of The American Songbook. Tony Bennett, paying Steve the ultimate compliment after catching the show late one night at the Rainbow, said to him, "Keep singing kid...we need younger guys like you in the business. We need singers that can really sing the great standards."

Don't miss your opportunity to hear this amazing vocalist on Easter night at a special 6:00 p.m. show.
