Triplets?

Ann L., Joyce and Dee

We will be having a pancake breakfast on Saturday morning, October 5th, in honor of the wonderful first responders in our town.

Members of the police and fire departments will be invited to join residents for a special breakfast. We will send back meals for those who cannot attend (due to scheduling).

We thought it would be nice if Fairview residents would write notes of thanks to give to both departments. Many of you have used their services — they work very hard to help us and to keep us safe.

There will be two boxes in the Activity Room, where you can drop off your kind notes. We will present them to the officers at the Pancake Breakfast.

Resident Phyllis Ahearn Shares Her Christmas Story

If it were possible, I would love to bring my current family back in time to the Christmases of my childhood.

My maternal grandmother, Pasqualina Giacomuzzi, lived with us then, so my mother's siblings, four brothers and one sister, would visit every holiday. There were lots of cousins. My aunt had 11 children and my uncle contributed nine more. Our holiday table would be laden with roast beef and lamb, an array of vegetables, plus ravioli (at least 400, stuffed with meat, never cheese) and fabulous homemade desserts. Outside, our little world looked like a fairyland with deep piles of snow and rime on the trees that sparkled like diamonds in the sunlight.

But one Christmas in particular comes to mind, in 1940. I wandered from room to room on Christmas Eve, but no Mom or Dad. Some of Dad's friends were there, playing cards at the kitchen table. They told me my mom went to Milford Hospital to pick up a very special present. I was so excited! It just had to be the pony I'd been hoping for. But Santa had other plans; he brought me a baby brother instead, born on Christmas Day. I'll admit, the baby was kind of fun — sort of an interactive toy that made funny noises. And I got a Prairie Rose cowgirl outfit as a consolation prize. But where's the pony? Although hope springs eternal, the only hooves I've heard on the roof since then belong to Santa's reindeer.

“Fiona,” Fairview’s Mascot

Many of you have had a chance to meet “Fiona,” our Fairview Mascot. You can see her several times a week in various locations around our community. She has spent time in our “Residents’ Closet” store, at a clothing boutique in our Atrium, and outside our Library, catching up on her summer reading! Residents have found her at Balance Class, at social hours, and even on our bus.

You never know what she will be doing or where she will be next. Stay tuned ...

Dinner at the State Fair

We recently enjoyed a special State Fair-themed dinner. Some of the special items included Italian sausages, corn dogs, fried dough, root beer floats, fried Oreos, and cotton candy. Regional Director Art, along with the kitchen staff, spoiled us with these delicious treats.
