Resident Spotlight - Marcia Korstvedt

Hello, Parsons House Frisco People.

Looks like it's my turn to tell you a bit about myself. I've been living at Parsons House Frisco for about two years and have lived in the Frisco area since 2007. I was raised in the small city of North Platte, Nebraska, and the majority of my life in the city of Lakewood, Colorado, they called it the "Foothills to the Rockies." I'm still a Denver Broncos fan.

I grew up with music in my life and learned to play the flute in the sixth grade. I participated in Concert Band, Orchestra, Pep Band, and Flute Quartet. Whew, I had a lot of energy back then.

My first job was working for the Public Telephone company in Denver as a secretary in the Statistical Department. Who would have believed that all those wires in those days would be replaced by cellular phones that follow you wherever you go. It was about this time when I met my husband, Jens, through a mutual friend. We were married in 1950.

Lakewood was a great place to live, where I raised my two boys, Marc and KC, and being a homemaker. The transition to Frisco was mostly easy as both my boys have their homes in Frisco as well.

Now my days are peaceful as I enjoy my iPad to read books (favorite author is Debbie Macomber), playing solitaire, and our daily word games.

If you see me at Bingo, hand me a winning card; things are kinda dry in that area!
