FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

BEZTAK NAMED AS A TOP US BEST MANAGED COMPANY

Farmington Hills, Mich. May 19, 2020 – Beztak Companies received national recognition today by earning a place on the US Best Managed Companies list, sponsored by Deloitte Private and The Wall Street Journal.

The US Best Managed Companies program is a mark of excellence for private companies, which evaluates and designates private companies on four key criteria in their management skills and practices—strategy, execution, culture and financials. This is Beztak’s debut on the list and is one of 27 honorees.

Chief Operating Officer, Elizabeth Carlson McCririe stated, “Beztak’s inclusion in the US Best Managed Companies list is an extremely exciting honor. Beztak has seen such tremendous growth, especially within the past year, and our inclusion in this list only validates our strategy of maintaining a consistent brand standard with a focus on being excellent, ethical, and effective.”

For more than 60 years, Beztak has developed, built, managed and invested in commercial, industrial and luxury residential and senior living real estate throughout the United States. With over 1,000 employees across the country, Beztak currently manages close to 200 market rate properties or 34,000 apartments, throughout 16 states and 60 markets nationwide.

“Being recognized as a US Best Managed Company is a true testament to the strength of our team,” Chief Executive Officer Sam Beznos said. “Beztak’s inclusion in this year’s list is a rewarding achievement and speaks volumes about our culture, reputation and legacy we have built as a leading development, construction, and management company. It is very rewarding to be recognized among businesses with such a diverse background across the US.”
