Hello, Sunshine!

Bring on the sun and fun! Summer officially begins on June 20.

Remember the Three L's

The sunshine will soon be at its full force. To avoid overheating, health experts say to remember the three L's when it comes to clothing: Keep it lightweight, loose-fitting and light-colored.

Hall of Fame Fisherman

Mention the name Ted Williams, and the MLB legend is often remembered as the sport's greatest hitter. But Williams was as skilled with a fishing pole as he was with a bat. An expert fly and deep-sea fisherman, he was inducted into the International Game Fish Association Fishing Hall of Fame in 1999. Williams is one of only a few athletes to be a Hall of Famer in more than one professional sport.

A Dandy Sight

Blooms of dandelions are an annual sight across many landscapes. The plant's head holds as many as 300 ray flowers that look like tiny petals. These mature into white seeds that can disperse and drift off miles away. Folklore says the dandelion's life cycle symbolizes our solar system: The yellow flower resembles the sun, the white puff ball looks like the moon and the scattered seeds are the stars.

Here's to Dads

Father's Day on Sunday, June 21, honors dads, granddads and father figures everywhere.

Healthy Stone Fruits

It's the season for stone fruits, those fresh, juicy treats with a pit inside. Peaches, nectarines, apricots, mangoes, plums and cherries are all stone fruits. Bite into these, and you'll get a healthy dose of vitamin C, important for boosting your immune system.

Trivia Whiz

'Jaws' Turns 45

Considered to be the first summer blockbuster, the thriller "Jaws" opened in theaters on June 20, 1975.

"Jaws" was based on the novel of the same name by Peter Benchley. He originally titled the book "Silence in the Deep."

Three mechanical sharks were built to portray the great white beast that terrorizes a seaside town.

To add suspense, the shark isn't seen until nearly an hour and a half into the film.

The memorable line "You're going to need a bigger boat" was ad-libbed by actor Roy Scheider, who played the town police chief, Martin Brody.

The first movie to make over $100 million at the box office, "Jaws" was the highest-grossing film of all time until 1977's "Star Wars."

Congrats to Superheroes of the week, Krystal & Desirea. Thanks for all you do for us!

Mabel has been working hard to get our plants watered.

Beautiful days and good books.

Enjoying that sunshine!

We Enjoyed making May Day baskets in activities and handing them out to our community.
