Feel Good Story: 7-Year-Old Hosts Prom-From-Home for his Babysitter

It's no secret that we've all had to make some sacrifices to stay safe and healthy in 2020. When Rachel Chapman, a 17-year-old of Raleigh, North Carolina, learned that her senior prom wouldn't be taking place this year, she was initially disheartened – but not for long. As soon as he heard the news, 7-year-old Curtis Rogers got to thinking about how he could help Rachel still celebrate her senior year. The result? A prom-from-home!

"I planned it out because Rachel probably just wanted to see me a lot and she also is one of the best people I've known," said Curtis to WTVD. "Rachel is one of our favorite people and Rachel's like the best nanny ever."

As Curtis' babysitter, Rachel's close bond with the 7-year-old has continued to grow over the past year. While they haven't been able to see each other as much as they might like to in recent months, that didn't stop Curtis from being determined to return the favor.

Eventually, the day came when Curtis arrived at Rachel's home with a "promposal" of his very own. To make sure that they stayed safe, Curtis continued to prove to be wiser-than-his-years by maintaining a 6-foot distance while asking Rachel to accompany him to a makeshift prom.

"I was so surprised," said Rachel to Good Morning America. "I had no idea he was going to go all out. It was very thoughtful and sweet."

When prom day finally arrived, Curtis set the stage for an unforgettable evening. After bringing a dinner table out into the backyard, the pair enjoyed a delicious meal from Chick-Fil-A. Although they were six feet apart, they felt as close of friends as ever as they proceeded to dance the night away.
