SENIOR LIVING

Thank You, Chef Matt

A big thank you to Chef Matt for the time and hard work he put into our one-of-a-kind garden box! Chef Matt took special care to build our garden box at just the right height for us to care for our plants. He also placed hooks on the ends for our hanging flower pots. Over the winter, our residents were dreaming big when talking about the flowers and vegetables we would like to plant come spring. We now have a beautiful garden box to plant all kinds of fresh, delicious vegetables and fragrance flowers! Chef Matt, we can't wait to harvest our garden and try some new recipes, like kohlrabi soup!

Thank you, Chef Matt!

Tree of Hope

Thank you to ClearPath for donating a canvas painting of a Tree of Hope for our residents and staff. This gift allowed our staff to have a special moment with our residents. Each resident and staff member chose a leaf, wrote their name on the leaf and then together picked just the right place on the Tree of Hope to put their leaf. Together we enjoyed watching our tree fill up!

Lava Lamp in a Jar

Fill a jar about 3/4 full with vegetable oil and add water until jar is almost full. Then add a few drops of food coloring. Lastly, break an Alka-Seltzer tablet into three or four pieces, dropping one of the pieces into your jar. You won't have to wait long before you see the reaction that will happen in your jar. Want to see the reaction again? Just drop another piece of Alka-Seltzer tablet into your jar and you will see the reaction happen all over again and again! Our residents had lots of oohs and aahs over the reaction they saw in their jars!

Beach in a Bottle

One last stop as we wrap up our escape to Hawaii — the beach! We all agreed spending time on the beach is time well spent! Digging our toes into the warm sand, listening to the waves come in and out, searching the beach for seashells, maybe even building a sand castle. Oh, what a relaxing day! We took a little of that daydreaming and bottled it up to remember for later. With a table full of colorful sand, jars, a funnel and seashells, we bottled up a little piece of the beach.

Joanna carefully adding her sand

Bob, your jar is looking very patriotic!

Denny looking good!

Lettuce, onions, kohlrabi, grape tomatoes, and peppers are just a few of the delicious vegetables we planted in our new garden boxes. Among our vegetables we also planted lavender, marigolds and hung some beautiful flowing hanging pots of impatiens. We are enjoying watching them grow as we water them daily.

With our Dining Rooms decorated from top to bottom, we were transported to the sunny island. We spent several weeks enjoying crafts and snackivities all while listening to traditional Hawaiian music. Oh, what fun we had!
