

Gratitude Soars As Travel Agents Organize a Free Trip for Veteran Pilots

The best friendships not only keep us grounded; they can take us to the skies! Enjoying life from the comfort of an Oregon senior living community, veteran pilots Jack Henderson, David Crawford, and Dick Snider have long had their eyes set on what would become their dream vacation: attending the Reno Air Races in Reno, Nevada. Eager to make their dream a reality, Jack contacted Julie Pflaume, a travel agent who would stop at nothing to help the trio get back in the air.

Upon learning that travel would be unavailable for the foreseeable future, Julie took to her Facebook page to collect donations for an alternative, in-town adventure: a trip through the sky with AeroLegends Biplane Rides. Before she knew it, travel agents had amassed over $1,110 dollars to see the trip brought to life – and at no cost to the veterans.

“I don’t deserve all the credit here, this was merely an idea on my part and the only reason it turned into what it was, was because everybody chipped in,” Julie added.

Receiving their invitations in the form of gift certificates, the three friends could hardly believe that they would soon be sky bound.

“Most of us had to go change our britches,” Jack laughed. “It was such an unexpected, pleasant surprise.”

Executive Director Corner

Welcome to June! With summer officially kicking off this month, it's time to start looking forward to the smell of sunscreen, cookouts with friends, and getting back to the Trilogy lifestyle that we all know and love.

To get us in the spirit of celebration, our Dining and Life Enrichment teams recently came together to pull off our incredible South America Theme Week. From May 17th through the 21st, we partied like it was the Rio Carnival to celebrate the sights, sounds, and smells from the comfort of our campus. After months of planning, it was amazing to see this event finally brought to life – especially after getting to taste the Argentinian chicken. Thank you to everyone involved for creating such an unforgettable experience!

In the coming weeks, we'll have more details to share with you about future themed events, community outings, and outdoor activities. Rest assured - with so much resuming and so much that we want to do, this is shaping up to be one of our greatest summers yet!

I look forward to seeing you soon!

Yours in Service,

Ellen Smitherman-Hinrichs
Executive Director

Entertainment

One of our very team members put on a little mini concert outside for our residents and they loved it! Already planning the next one. Even the trombone has to wear a mask!

ARTISAN PROGRAM

Enjoying quilting with good friends.

Creating masterpieces using bubble wrap.

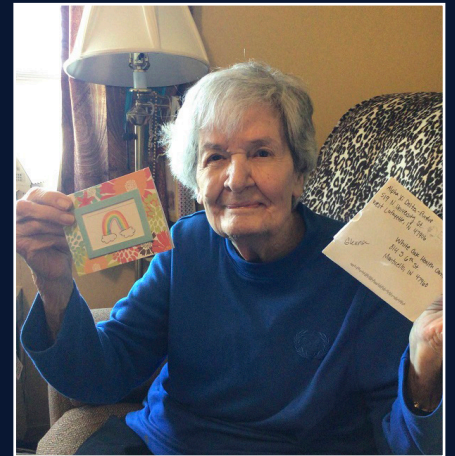

Campus in Color

The weather has not really been cooperating with us lately so we brought the outdoors in. Planting and creating flowerpots is so therapeutic! Keeping it beautiful!

Intergenerational Fun

Glenna has enjoyed reading the letters from Alpha Xi Delta sorority at Purdue. They started a pen-pal club with us and our residents really like hearing from them.

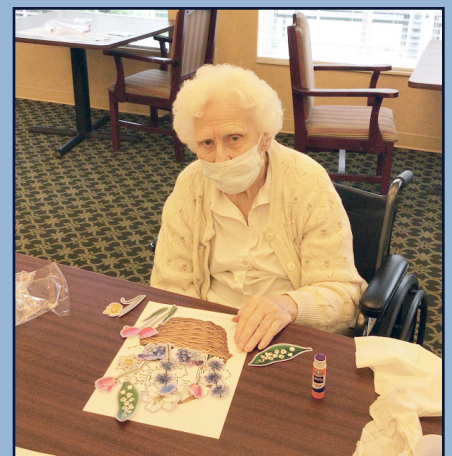

ER3 HIGHLIGHTS

Our staff works hard to take good care of our residents and Home Office came to show their appreciation by playing games, delicious food, and awesome prizes. Thank you for that you do!

Lifelong Learning

Colleen is showing her knowledge of flowers by completing the May Flower Challenge.

Smile of the Month

Making Fairy and Gnome gardens was so much! As if you can't tell by the smile on Cleta's face.
