

Woman Meets Her Birth Mother after 50 Years, Learns She's An Actress From Her Favorite Show

When Lisa Wright sat down to watch That's My Mama every week as a child, she never could have imagined how accurate the title would prove to be.

As an adopted child, Lisa never sought out her biological family. Once she had a child of her own, however, she began investigating.

"My (adoptive) mom told me, 'Your mommy loved you, but she was really young, and she knew she couldn't take care of you. I wanted a baby so bad, and that's why your mom let me take care of you. You weren't abandoned. This was just the best thing for you,'" Lisa said in an interview with the Today show.

Following a DNA test, Lisa was quickly put into touch with members of her biological family – and before long, her biological mother.

"A voice on the other end (of the phone) says, 'Is this my daughter?' And then I just went, 'Oh, my God, is this my mother?'" Lisa said. "And then she goes, 'Yes, sweetie, this is your mom.' It was just the most indescribable feeling."

Lisa would quickly learn that her mother is none other than Lynee Moody – an actress from one of Lisa's favorite shows from childhood.

"I grew up watching my mother on TV and didn't even know it," Wright said. "That's My Mama — that was our must-see TV. We all sat down and watched That's My Mama every week, and who knew? No idea.... And that's my mama!"

Campus Leadership

We would like to welcome our new Executive Director, Michael Lacey. Mike is new to Vienna Springs but has worked with Trilogy for almost 15 years. He has also been a licensed Nursing Home Administrator for nearly 15 years. Mike loves the emphasis that Trilogy places on the dignity and value of each resident, team member, and customer we serve. He has lived in Springfield, Ohio, for his entire life. Mike and his wife Molly have five children, three grandchildren, and another grandchild on the way. When Mike is not working, he and his wife love outdoor activities like biking, hiking, and doing yard work. They love vacationing on the beaches of the Carolina's or the Mountains of the Southwest. He is excited to give leadership to Vienna Springs as it prepares to open. Mike, we are so glad to have you at Vienna Springs! #SeniorLiving
