Rock-Hard Artwork

July 3 is International Drop a Rock Day, a day when people all around the world will participate in the simple act of painting rocks and leaving their small pieces of artwork in places for others to find and enjoy. These small acts of public art are like small, warm hugs for passersby. While it is easy to find rocks to paint while strolling your neighborhood, landscaping and gardening stores often sell rocks for minimal cost. First, make sure to wash your rock of any dirt and debris. Some choose to apply a basecoat of paint to create a blank canvas, while others love the look of bare rock as a background. Acrylic paint is perfect for painting rocks, but some people choose paint pens for their ease of use. Lastly, applying a spray sealer will ensure that your artwork lasts, but some enjoy the notion that rock art is temporary. When the paint rubs off over time, someone else will get to paint a fresh message or picture.

We had so many laughs as we did facials this month nothing beats Laughter and good friends.

Our Dare to Dream program is unique and wonderful opportunity. We do our best to make your dream come true anything from seeing a horse race, to throwing pottery on a wheel. If you have something you have always wanted to do or something you want to do again let us know and we will do our best to make that dream a reality.
