TCU

Short Term Therapy To Bridge The Gap Between Hospital Care and Home

Meadows on Fairview Transitional Care Unit or TCU provides short-term therapy and medical care for patients who are well enough to leave the hospital, but are not well enough to return home. Meadows on Fairview TCU offers 14 private rooms with full bathrooms. We provide the same high level of care you received during your recent hospital stay. Our goal is to work with our patients to provide the therapies they need to prepare them to return home safely.

The TCU team will prepare and manage a plan of care in adherence with your doctor's orders. Your doctor will monitor and track your progress, and you may need to see your doctor at your clinic. Nurses will directly manage your medical care at the TCU. Therapists – including Occupational, Physical and Speech – will be available to assist with your recovery.

We work with patients who may need rehabilitation, or who have medical needs that qualify them for a skilled nursing facility stay. We help patients with complex conditions transition to the next stage of care.

The TCU offers a supportive environment for people who no longer require all the resources of a hospital, but who are still unable to return home. The healing environment of a TCU helps ease the transition, offering a variety of therapies including:

- Physical therapy
- Occupational therapy
- Speech therapy.

The setting of the care unit supports physical independence which allows a faster recovery and earlier return home. For more information call us at 651-464-2121.
