

Resident Engagement Idea

This Week's Idea: Mini TED Talk Series

Community and Team Member: The Pillars of Prospect Park-
Erin Erdahl, Active Living Director

Program Goals and Instructions:

The goal is to utilize the expertise of the community of POPP residents, families, friends/connections, and staff to share their knowledge in a mini-educational format

Program Frequency: mini-TED talks are 20-25 minutes in length and occur 1-2 times a month

Presentation Topics (so far):

November (1) –

- Eat, Darling, Eat and More Jewish Memories - poems written and read by a published author

December (2) –

- 'Seeing the Light' through a camera - a presentation by a career photographer
- How a fascination for worms got me writing for Vogue - a presentation by a public policy professor

Attached to this email the flyer and the form to collect and track the presenters is included there but it's also available here -
