

Jennifer Brown, Executive Director

Jennifer joined Stilley House in 2021 after working at our sister community, Lakes of Paducah. She jumped at the chance to come back home to Marshall County and considers herself grateful, thankful, and blessed to work with the residents and families at Stilley House. Many exciting changes and improvements have been made since Jennifer came to the community, only adding to the family feel. When she is not busy at Stilley House, she enjoys time with her husband and two children.

Samantha Collins, Director of Resident Services

Samantha brings over a decade of experience in nursing and emergency services, along with her caring heart and vibrant personality. She has a Bachelors of Science Degree in Emergency Services Management, an Associate of Science, a Licensed Practical Nurse, and various other degrees and certificates. A Paducah native, Samantha credits her motivation, drive, and patience to her family. She looks forward to building relationships with residents and families at the Stilley House.

Robyn Powers, Community Relations Director

Robyn began her journey in senior living in 2005 after graduating from Murray State University. She has served in many positions from Administrative Assistant to Executive Director, and has been the CRD since 2018. She quickly fell in love with the people and charm of Marshall County, truly loves the bond that is created through the transition to our community and treasures each relationship that is built.

Charles Shubert, Open Arms Memory Care

Charles began his caregiving for his mother for more than 7 years prior to his career at the Stilley House. He began in 2018 as a Resident Assistant before his promotion to Director in 2021. In 2019 he was the recipient of the Outstanding Caregiver Award by the Kentucky Center for Assisted Living. As the Director of Open Arms, it's not just the activities he creates and carries out, but the love that he puts into everything that makes Charles a true asset.

Adam Ketelsen, Culinary Director

Adam brings with him 5 years of kitchen experience to The Stilley House. He graduated from Auguste Escoffier School for Culinary Arts in Boulder, Colorado. Adam, then completed his internship at Disney World in Orlando, Florida, working under many amazing, renowned chefs. Adam has a driving desire to bring quality food to our residents at The Stilley House.

Paula Robinson, Activities Director

A former teacher and HR manager, Paula brings her love of working with people and channeling joy into all aspects of senior living. She feels her role is to serve The Stilley House residents and make their day a little brighter through activities they enjoy. An Alabama native, Paula and her husband of 25 years have lived in Marshall County since 2007. They are empty-nesters, with two children in college.

Michelle Case, Business Office Director

Michelle is a lifelong native of Marshall County, and has been with Stilley House since it opened in 1997. She has a true passion for caring for our seniors. She feels that this is not just a job but a true blessing to get to help make a difference in our senior's lives. Michelle is married to her husband, David, she has one son and two bonus sons. When not at work, Michelle enjoys spending time with her family and two dogs.

Teresa McMullin, Concierge

Teresa began her career at Stilley House in 2012. She loved her job as a Resident Assistant but thrives in the position of Concierge. She loves the residents and families and goes out of her way to help in any way she can. Teresa is originally from Calloway County but moved to Marshall County 30 years ago after marrying her husband. Teresa and her husband have 2 sons who are her world. She loves camping and spending time with her family.

Ray Eaton, Maintenance Director
