

Sheila Dickmann, Executive Director

Sheila has worked in senior living for almost 20 years in the roles of Executive Director and Operations Specialist. She is a member of the National Council of Certified Dementia Practitioners. Sheila moved to Clarksville just to work for Arcadia Senior Living. Time spent at the community with the residents and staff is a priority and rewarding. During her off time, she enjoys spending it with her husband, her two daughters, and a delightful granddaughter, Madison.

Jackie Stone, Director of Resident Services

Jackie, born in small town Virginia, moved to Tennessee in 1998. She has been a nurse for 25 years and attended college at Belmont University where she studied Business Administration. Jackie has been in senior living since 2011. She loves serving our seniors and being a solution provider for others. She has been married for 10 years, has one stepson, and five grandchildren. She is also a dog mom to two Yorkies.

Amber Malone, Community Relations Director

Amber considers her work at Arcadia a ministry. She enjoys helping seniors transition into maintenance free living where they will be assisted with needs and loved like family! Amber achieved her master's degree in Healthcare Administration at Austin Peay State University. She believes if you choose a job you love, you'll never have to work a day in your life. She found this at Arcadia, and thanks God for it!

Melissa Bailey, Open Arms Memory Care Director

Melissa brings 25 years of healthcare experience to Arcadia. She is originally from Denver, Colorado, but has spent most of her life in Tennessee. She began as a CNA before earning her LPN and then a Bachelor of Science in Health Sciences with an emphasis in Public Health. She is married to a retired Army veteran and has two sons. She absolutely loves helping our memory care community flourish each day.

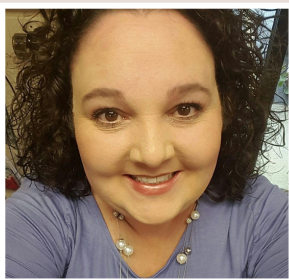

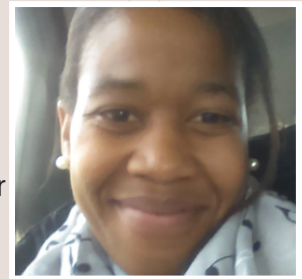

Allyzza Anderson, Culinary Director

Allyzza, originally from the Philippines, received her BS Entrepreneurship with a Major in Culinary. She brings 10 years of hotel industry experience including the Gaylord Opryland Resort in Nashville. She is dedicated to bringing the best food and service to the residents. Allyzza shares her positive outlook in life with everyone around her. She is married and they have an adorable son, Alexander.

Chilita Jeffrey, Activities Director

Chilita is a Clarksville native and has spent most of her life in this area enjoying each moment. She started her journey as an Activities Director in November 2019 and has been LIVING THE DREAM ever since. She truly enjoys what she does every day. She wants to thank Arcadia Senior Living for taking a chance on a small-town girl like herself. She has been married to her wonderful husband, for 13 years and together they have three children.

Melodie Adair, Business Office Director

Melodie joined Arcadia in October 2017 after serving as Office Administrators for 20 years. Melodie's dad was a minister to senior living communities which sparked her interest. She was a Resident Assistant and Activities Director prior to the Business Office Director. She is passionate about assisting the residents and meeting new residents and families as they move in. Melodie sees her position as a gift from God that has allowed her to be around seniors while doing the work she loves.

Robin Lyle, Open Arms Activity Director

Robin is new to the Arcadia team and much welcomed. She was born in Johnson City, Tennessee and moved to the Clarksville area in 1992 where she started working in long term care. Robin received her Activities Director Certification in 2000 and has been working with activities since then. She has completed many hours of continuing education on dementia and Alzheimer's because it is a passion of hers.

Wayne Darke, Maintenance Director

Wayne started in maintenance in 2010 working in a skilled nursing facility and worked his way up to Director of Plant Operations. Looking for a change of pace, Wayne was one of the original members hired to open Arcadia as Maintenance Director. Wayne has been married for thirty years, and they have two grown children and a rescued dachshund. His hobbies include woodworking, all things Star Wars, and lazy weekends with his wife watching movies.
