Caught Red Handed, Carole H.

Addington Place of Shoal Creek is so thankful to have so many amazing team members, who are always showing their love to the residents. This month we want to give a special thank you to Carole for going above and beyond her call to duty! Carole was caught red handed showing some extra care for the residents and the community by maintaining a positive attitude, jumping in where she is needed, and always putting residents needs before her own.

Carol started working at Addington Place of Shoal Creek in October of 2019. She are originally from Kansas City, Kansas and their hobbies include hiking, volleyball, and watching her niece and nephews play sports in school. She would like every one to know that she loves her family get togethers and spoiling her niece and nephews. She says that the residents are what make her smile when she comes to work

Learn About Your Neighbors Patricia A.

Patricia was born and raised in Kansas City, MO. She has two Daughters (Erin and Megan), six grandchildren, and five great grandchildren. She worked for forty years doing Communications for the Army Corp before retiring. She moved to Addington Place of Shoal Creek about eight months ago. Pat enjoys reading, needlepoint, and anything that has to do with being crafty. Pat would like others to know that she is a positive person who loves to speak her mind and that she enjoys getting to know her neighbors
