The History of Veterans Day, A Day of Gratitude

On November 11th, U.S. citizens will honor and express gratitude for those who have served our country on what is known as Veterans Day. It is a U.S. holiday that honors veterans of all wars.

What you may not know is that its history has had quite a few interesting twists and turns.

In 1918, during World War I, on the 11th hour of the 11th day of the 11th month, hostilities ended between the Allied nations and Germany—on “Armistice Day.” The Treaty of Versailles, which marked the end of the war, was signed on June 28, 1919, but the armistice date was the one most people considered the conflict’s end.

In November of 1919, Armistice Day was observed by many countries with parades, public celebrations, and pauses to business and school activities at 11 am.

Then, in June of 1926, Congress passed a resolution saying November 11 should be commemorated yearly. As of May 13, 1938, Armistice Day was a legal Federal holiday.

What is the difference between Veterans Day and Memorial Day? Memorial Day, in May, is dedicated to Americans who have served and who passed away during (or as a result of) serving. Veterans Day honors all Veterans, alive and who have passed.

Changes would still occur though. During World War II, more than 16 million Americans served in the Army, Air Force, Marines, and Navy. Another 5.7 million served in the Korean War. Thus, Veteran’s service organizations lobbied for the words “Veterans Day” to replace Armistice Day in honor of the American veterans of all wars. In 1954, President Dwight D. Eisenhower signed legislation for the name to be changed.

The day would still see some changes! As of 1971, Veterans Day was moved to the fourth Monday in October when Congress passed a Uniform Holidays Bill to make Monday “the” day for federal holidays. But in 1978, due to many states’ confusion and disapproval over the change, the holiday was moved back to its original observance date.

Since then, Veterans Day continues to be observed on November 11th. That day, and throughout the year, we thank all who have served for our great nation.

We welcome you to share messages of thanks for our Veterans on our Facebook post on the 11th of November.
