Letter from Administrator

There are a lot of exciting changes coming to the dietary department. As most of you know, in addition to our regular menu- we provide an "always available" menu. Our dietary manager, Sean Bradley (with input from the resident council food committee) has taken the time to update this menu. We have decided to include the new "always available" menu in this edition of the newsletter, so that you can see the positive changes and can encourage your loved one to try some these options.

As always, please feel free to call with questions or comments.

Easy Turkey Craft

All you need for this easy turkey craft is some glue, a pencil, a black marker, scissors, and brown, orange, yellow, and red construction paper – googly eyes optional.

Start by tracing one of your hands (fingers and thumb tucked together) on a brown piece of paper. Then trace both hands with your fingers splayed out on two different colors (orange, red, yellow, green) of paper. Be sure to trace the individual fingers. For more "feathers" trace individual fingers on various colors of paper. Cut out all of your traced pieces. The heel of the handprint will be your turkey head. Arrange the finger hand prints and individual finger pieces behind the head/body piece to look like feathers and glue into place. Cut out two long strips of the brown construction paper and accordion fold for legs. Cut out feet for your turkey – use your imagination – it doesn't have to be perfect! Draw on a face (or use googly eyes if available) and cut a small triangle out of the red paper for the turkey wattle. Display your turkey for all to see at your family gathering.

Visitation Guidelines

Visitors are no longer required to answer covid symptom questions and temperature screen upon entering the building. Masks are no longer required for visitors but are encouraged.

Resident of the Month

Our resident on the month for November is Loree. Loree was born on January 4th in Chicago, IL. She grew up in Chicago and Norridge, IL with her dad, mom, sister (Cara), and brother (Patrick). Her grandparents, aunts, uncles, and cousins were all nearby.

Loree worked as a social worker and teacher. In her spare time Loree enjoyed reading. Her favorite author is John Grisham. Her favorite movie is the Sound of Music. Loree's favorite place to go is to her grandparents' home. Her favorite holiday is Christmas! She loves lunch and her favorite color is red. Some of Loree's talents include playing the flute. She was the first chair in the high school band! She also enjoyed playing club volleyball, softball, and soccer. Something you may not know about Loree is that she designed her childhood village flag for the "Norridge Fire Department." She was awarded a plaque and savings bond in an official village meeting where her design was adapted for the flag which remains. This was a school competition.
