Embracing the Season of Giving

Whether you're looking for that special something to give to a loved one or are writing up your own wishlist, here are a few simple – but effective – gift ideas to keep in mind as we head into the holiday season.

The Power of Books and Novels

Who doesn't love getting lost in another world? Send your loved one a physical copy of a tale from their favorite author, or refer them to an E-book about a topic they might have an interest in.

As beneficial to the mind as it is to the soul, reading is proven to help sharpen mental acuity – making it the perfect gift for anyone looking to explore the works of others.

What It Means to Receive a Letter

Reflect on what it is that you love most about that special person in your life. Is it their smile? Their wit? How comfortable you feel when you're with them? Whatever it is about your loved one that brightens your days, use your voice to put those feelings onto paper and let them know just how much they mean to you.

When it comes to gift giving, it doesn't matter how large or small the gesture is – only that it's coming from you. When your loved one sees your name written on an envelope, stickered onto a box, or signed at the end of a note, they'll simply be reminded of the joy that you bring into their lives, and how easy it is to have those same feelings about you.

Happy Holidays from our family to yours!

Happy Birthday!

ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION

Joan and Loren invited their family to celebrate their 75th wedding anniversary at the campus! We were honored to be trusted with such a special day. Mike, our assistant director of food services, prepared their meal right in front of them and Kiersten, also a member of the dietary team, baked a beautiful anniversary cake! Congrats Joan and Loren!

Executive Director Corner

Welcome to December!

It's officially the most wonderful time of the year, which means that every day becomes a merry celebration. This could mean baking a favorite family recipe, creating a decorative holiday wreath, or attending a worship service with our Inspirations program, which meets once weekly. We always strive to honor the traditions that mean so much to those we serve, so ask our Life Enrichment Director about how you can celebrate the holidays your way!

At a time when there's so much joy to be shared with friends and family, we also remember those who may be spending their Christmas worrying about their livelihood. That's why until December 31st, we'll be continuing to accept donations towards our annual Hope for the Holidays campaign, which supports our local charities throughout the holiday season. If you or a loved one would like to make a donation, be sure to talk to a member of our team!

As 2022 begins to draw to a close, I also wanted to say thank you to each and every one of you for such a fantastic year. From all of our incredible Theme Dinners to our lunch outings, our Happy Hours to our birthday celebrations, there hasn't been a single moment that I would trade to be anywhere else but with you and your families. This year has truly been one for the books.

I hope that you have a great holiday and an unforgettable New Year!

Yours in Service,

Anthony Wilson

Friendly Reminder

We are right in the middle of the wonderful Holiday season! It has been incredible seeing all the families and friends visiting our campus! Please be sure to contact the Life Enrichment Director to reserve a private dining room if you wish to celebrate your holiday privately with your loved one. We look forward to seeing everyone!

Halloween Celebration

As most of you know, our therapy department at Morrison Woods is incredible. They are constantly going above and beyond creating unique and personalized programs for everyone. For Halloween the residents chose and worked on their costume with our therapy team and put on a parade for everyone to enjoy!

We had an epic Halloween Celebration at our Campus!
