Caught Red Handed, Seth M.

Addington Place of Shoal Creek is so thankful to have a team full of people who genuinely care for and are always showing their dedication to the residents. This month we want to give a special thanks to you Seth for going above and beyond his call to duty! Seth was caught red handed showing some extra care for the residents and the community by always keeping a positive attitude and being willing to jump in where he is needed in the kitchen.

Seth started working at Addington Place of Shoal Creek in September of 2018. He is originally from Florida but has lived in Liberty, Missouri for twelve years. His hobbies include playing video games, streaming, playing Dungeons & Dragons, and spending time with his girlfriend. He has four pets (two dogs and two cats). Seth would like everyone to know that he has a twin and that interacting with the residents is what make him smile when he comes to work each day.
