

The Charleston at Cedar Hills Named the “Best Assisted Living” by U.S. News & World Report

The Charleston at Cedar Hills has been recognized by the U.S. News & World Report as a 2023-24 “Best Assisted Living” community a ranking report released in May. The title is achieved through U.S. News’s statistical assessment of a community’s performance from consumer satisfaction surveys. Only 43% of the nearly 4,000 communities that U.S. News evaluated earned a “Best” rating for even one type of care.

“It’s an honor to have The Charleston at Cedar Hills ranked among the best in the country – and for the second year in a row,” said Jeff Fischer, president of MBK Senior Living. “We strive to provide a culture of care, hospitality and an environment that all MBK residents are proud to call home. It’s gratifying to have those efforts recognized.”

U.S. News Best Senior Living ratings and profiles offer comprehensive information and exclusive analysis of consumer satisfaction data evaluating such factors as community and activity, food and dining, caregiving, and management and staff for nearly 4,000 communities in the continental U.S. and Hawaii.

For more than 30 years, U.S. News has served the American public as an unbiased arbiter of quality across a variety of important choices. Whether picking a college, selecting a hospital, or moving to a senior living community, consumers go to U.S. News
