"Christmas" A Poem by Resident Judy W.

It's Christmas time, oh can't you tell?
There's magic all around.
It's that special kind of feeling,
Where joy and faith abound!

The lighted homes, the candles bright,
The greens on post and door
It fills us with a long to
Return to days of yore!

We celebrate the birthday
Of Baby Jesus mild
Oh, what a celebration
For that tiny little child!

Yes there it is, we feel it so
It stirs us deep inside.
In our minds and in our hearts,
This magic does abide.

No matter what the age we bear
We get that Christmas feeling.
It seems to swirl, envelopes us
And really sets us reeling.

We called them "Christmas Goonies"
The excitement of Christmas Eve
And I still get those old "Christmas Goonies"
Past age 50, I sure do believe!

And even though we moan and groan
About our Christmas shopping,
That something special in the air,
It really keeps us hopping!

Bright mistletoe and holly,
Santa and silvery bells.
Cooking in a cozy kitchen,
Oh, those fragrant, aromatic smells!

The music, it is wonderful,
"White Christmas" to "Silent Night"
Memories flash, we're lifted up,
To a sparkling and glorious height.

Christmas is for children, but for all of us, too
A wonderful gift once a year
T'would be great to have it ever around
Savoring always that grand Christmas cheer!

So let's keep Christmas ever new,
It's depth, its glow, its fun.
And in the words of Tiny Tim
"God Bless Us, everyone!"
