A Note from the Executive Director

We made it through the holidays and what a joyful time everyone had!

Many thanks to the volunteers and Stacy and her crew in our Life Enrichment Department that planned the Christmas

Party and the great entertainment we enjoyed.

We are also grateful for all of the residents and families that participated in the event and made it so special. We had a large turn out with great food and live music. The raffle drawing brought lovely gifts baskets to residents, families and friends.

The new year is here and we are gearing up for an early spring, since we haven't had much of a winter! Our next celebration will be Valentines day luncheon and ROSE party. Stay tuned for the details!

Best, Kirk
