

Pat Cranmer, Executive Director

I loved spending time with my grandmother who was positive, kind, funny and wise, and I soon realized the wealth of knowledge possessed by seniors. For 47 years I have been able to live my dream serving seniors, in such roles as Activity Director, Social Service Assistant, Executive Director, VP of Care and Quality Assurance Director. Making a difference in the lives of seniors is a true passion and one I hope to continue. I chose RobinBrooke for all the many amenities and advantages we have to offer. I hope you will make that decision too!

Deb Sellers, Director of Resident Care & Wellness

Deb brings over thirty years of nursing experience to RobinBrooke, with fifteen years of that career dedicated to Assisted Living. Her wealth of knowledge and experience enables her to meet the daily challenge of Senior Living. Advocating for seniors as well as a commitment to providing compassionate care has been Deb's purpose and calling. She looks forward to supporting the residents and families of RobinBrooke in life's everchanging journey.

Natasha Mackey, Director of Culinary Services

In her career, Natasha has been a public servant, demonstrating the importance of customer service and positive outcomes. Her can-do attitude and caring nature is obvious to everyone she meets. Natasha's strong desire to please others and passion for cooking led to her current position as Director of Culinary Services. In the words of George Bernard Shaw "There is no sincerer love than the love of food."

Cindy Kennedy, Open Arms Memory Care Director

Cindy, a graduate of the University of Tennessee, brings over 30 years of experience in the field of long-term care. She has held many roles however, Cindy found there was no more rewarding role than working with seniors who have cognitive impairments and/or memory loss. She strives to make a difference in the lives of our residents daily by providing opportunities for socialization and engaging residents in meaningful activities. Cindy also offers guidance and acts as a resource and educator to staff. The reward is seeing all the smiles and hearing all the laughter.

Marcia Thompson, Business Office Director

Marcia has worked in various customer service roles throughout her career, from hospitality to healthcare. She developed excellent communication and problem solving skills, and is excited to bring these skills to her role at RobinBrooke. "Seniors have a treasure-trove of stories and a wealth of knowledge to share. From traveling extensively, a wide range of careers, raising families, to fighting in wars, everybody has an interesting story." Marcia is thrilled to join the RobinBrooke family.

Mike DeRuiter, Director of Maintenance

Mike has been doing maintenance most of his adult life. He began learning how to do basic maintenance work such as electrical and plumbing at the age of 10 when his family moved to Kentucky and bought a mobile home park. Mike enjoys working with seniors and finds helping others very rewarding. Every smile and "Thank You" makes his day.

Deanna Thompson, Life Engagement Coordinator

Congratulations to Deanna Thompson on her new as Life Engagement Coordinator. Deanna started as a Concierge, then became a Resident Care Specialist before taking this new role. Deanna has experience working in long term care and rehabilitation facilities, where she gained her experience planning, organizing and leading various activity programs. Deanna is married and has six children, and enjoys hiking, reading romance novels, baking and spending time with her family. "One of my greatest pleasures and brings me a sense of fulfillment is working with the residents here at RobinBrooke."
