

Traditions of Cross Keys Named Best Senior Living by U.S. News & World Report

On Tuesday, April 16, U.S. News & World Report, the global authority in hospital rankings and consumer advice, revealed its 2024 Best Senior Living ratings.

GLASSBORO, N.J., April 16, 2024 — Traditions of Cross Keys was recognized as Best Assisted Living and Best Memory Care by U.S. News & World Report. It is the third year in a row that Traditions of Cross Keys as been part of the top-rated list, when U.S. News first launched its Best Senior Living.

For the U.S. News' ratings, communities in the U.S. are evaluated in one or more of the following categories: independent living, assisted living, memory care, and continuing care retirement.

Traditions of Cross Keys Executive Director Ellen Scagnelli said, "It's an honor to be named Best Assisted and Best Memory Care. Everyone at Traditions feels privileged to serve our residents and to be a reliable source of dementia-care support for family caregivers. Thank you for entrusting us with your loved one's care."

U.S. News analyzed survey data from over 250,000 residents and their family members at nearly 4,000 senior living communities nationwide. The survey asked residents and family members about their satisfaction with aspects of the community such as safety, caregiving, management, staff, food and dining, and activities.

Heritage Senior Living manages Traditions of Cross Keys and is based in Blue Bell, Pennsylvania. The company oversees senior housing communities throughout the mid-Atlantic region, including 13 others in Pennsylvania and three in Virginia.
