Letter from Executive Director

Dear Residents and Families,

Happy May! The days are getting longer, and the grounds are in full bloom! We have finally made it to warmer days and the perfect "front porch sitting" weather.

I am excited to announce that Patrick Penrod has joined our Lakes management team as our new Maintenance Director. Patrick brings several years of maintenance experience to the Lakes, and we are so happy to have him! If you need something done in your apartment, please put in a work order with Peggy at the front desk.

May is going to be an action-packed month here at the community. May 2nd we will have a Tulips and Juleps party in the River Club. May 3rd be sure to join us in the River Club for our annual Derby Social. May 6th dress up in your Mexican attire and celebrate Cinco de Mayo with lots of great food and drinks in the River Club. Get your bowling shoes out and join us on May 17th for a trip to the local bowling alley and lunch at Pizza Inn. There are several more fun filled activities planned for the month so be sure to pick up a daily calendar at Peggy's desk.

Here at Arcadia the well-being and safety of our residents is our primary concern. As many of you know we had planned to install luxury vinyl tile throughout the dining room and common areas. With the recent increase in elevator issues, we have decided to put that on hold as we may need to replace some, if not all of the parts. I will keep everyone updated on this. Please do not hesitate to see me with any questions, comments, or concerns. My door is always open.

Resident Spotlight

Nancy Ray is our resident spotlight for the month of May. Nancy was born one of three siblings along with her sisters Barbara and Bonnie. Nancy was blessed in her first marriage by giving birth to her only son Vance Shore. He later blessed Nancy with her only grandson Gavin. Nancy worked as the Business Office Manager at Superior Care and she is a member of St. Thomas Moore Catholic Church. Nancy now enjoys getting her hair and nails done, going out to eat, and playing card games, especially Crazy 8's. Nancy took a belly dancing class in the 1970s for exercise and still enjoys sharing that talent with others. Nancy is a very caring person that gets along well with others. If you see Nancy around she always has a smile on her face. When you are around Nancy you are going to laugh and have a good time! We are so happy to have her here at the Lakes.
