

MEET THE TEAM

Emily Sansbury, Director of Independent Living

Emily, a native Louisvillian, left in 2010 to start her career in senior living. Emily specialized in opening Independent Living communities all over the US, before returning to Louisville in 2018. Emily loves participating in resident activities, listening to all the amazing life stories she gets to hear from the residents, and finding solutions to issues, big or small. When Emily is not at work she enjoys walking her Weimaraner, Charlie Brown, working in the garden, and playing cards.

Sarah Lombardi, RN, Director of Resident Care & Wellness

Sarah brings over 33 years of invaluable nursing experience and leadership to Arcadia. In 1990 she earned her LPN, and then her Bachelor of Nursing degree from the UofL. Sarah believes in fostering a familial atmosphere and instilling a sense of empathy in her team. Sarah looks forward to spending meaningful time with each resident and their families, upholding her commitment to providing the highest standard of care with a personal touch.

Ann Clark, Director of Community Relations

Ann brings over 20 years of Senior Living experience to Arcadia Louisville and is thrilled to introduce Louisville to Arcadia Senior Living. She considers it a privilege to live & work in her hometown and she instantly saw that Arcadia values its residents, families & employees. Ann, a native of Tennessee, moved to Kentucky in 2019 with husband Jim, daughter Caroline and two cats. Ann enjoys travelling, shopping, attending concerts, plays & football games!

Christina Virgin, Director of Culinary Services

Christina joins the Arcadia team with an impressive background in culinary arts, having worked in a vast array of kitchens and senior living communities alike. Her passion for creating delicious, nutritious meals tailored to the unique needs of our residents will make a positive impact. "I'm excited to bring my love for cooking to this wonderful community."

Donna Iuzzolino, Open Arms Director

Donna is a dedicated nurse with over 10 years of experience, specializing in geriatrics with a focus on dementia care. Her nursing journey began in her late 30s as a single mom to 4 wonderful kids, showcasing her resilience and determination. Outside of work, Donna enjoys crafting of all kinds. She is deeply passionate about human rights and animal rights, striving to make a positive impact. Donna's ultimate goal is to raise happy and successful children and to spread happiness and positivity in the world.

Michelle Westerfield, Director of Life Engagement

Michelle started her career with senior engagement in 2009 at this community straight from University of Louisville with a degree in Sociology. Her days are filled with great opportunities to enrich her residents and they keep her on her toes. Michelle enjoys spending time with her family when not with her Arcadia family and is a big reader

Jason Dean, Business Office Director

Jason brings more than 27 years of management experience. New to Senior Living, he now understands why they say that this is meaningful work. Jason is inspired by his Grandparents and now has the opportunity and privilege to give back. "I love hearing their stories and life lessons. It takes a loving & caring person to do the work that we do, and I am surrounded by very passionate individuals who make our Community a special place for everyone."

Junie Schoch, Director of Maintenance

Junie has been a maintenance technician since the late 80s providing service for hotels in the Louisville area. Shortly after he was recruited into the senior living field. Though not sure how he felt about it at the time, now Junie would not do anything else. In his free time he enjoys spending time with his granddaughter and taking her to her many activities.

