Letter from Executive Director

Dear Residents and Families,

Happy October! We finally made it to (in my opinion) the most beautiful time of year here at The Lakes. With the cooler temps rolling in we are beginning to see the beautiful artwork that God created with the changing color of the leaves. Please get out and take a gander around the property. There is a specific tree right on the water line of the lake out front that will be particularly beautiful in its golden splendor.

Aside from all the natural beauty we have to look forward to this month, we also have a ton of fun activities planned for everyone. Just to highlight a few: Oct. 1st Homemade Pumpkin Spice Cookie baking class, Oct. 4th Mexican food restaurant outing, Oct. 7th Shopping trip to our local consignment stores, Oct. 10th Reggie LeFaye Concert, Oct. 11th Trip to the Pumpkin Patch and lunch at Pizza Inn, Oct. 14th Dessert Bar with everything made by the management team and staff, Oct. 15th I Love Lucy party, Oct. 18th Classic Car Show, Oct. 31st Halloween/Fall Celebration. Please mark some of these exciting things down on your calendar and take part in the fun!

Resident Spotlight

Our October resident spotlight is Ms. Emily Bane. Emily was born in Metropolis, IL. Once she graduated high school she moved to Bloomington, IL and worked for Country Companies Insurance for several years. Then she met her late husband, Bill, and moved to Minonk, IL.

Bill and Emily had two children Rick and Julie. Emily stayed home with her children until they were older. Then in 1983 Emily went to work for a pharmacy in charge of billing. Emily worked their until she retired in 2008. Emily enjoys reading, quilting, arts/crafts, and spending time with family and friends.

Emily is such a happy and outgoing person. We are sure happy she is apart of our Lakes family.
