HONORING ALL WHO SERVED!

THE ORIGIN OF MEMORIAL DAY

The very first Memorial Day ceremony was held by freed slaves after the Civil War. On 1 May 1865, a crowd of 10,000 strong, mostly freed slaves and missionaries, gathered for a parade. 3,000 black school children marched with bouquets of flowers, their voices ringing out with "John Brown's Body." Members of the 54th Massachusetts and other Black Union regiments performed double-time marches. Black ministers recited verses from the Bible. The first Memorial Day was all about paying homage to the men who died fighting to abolish slavery.

Three years later in 1868, the first official "Decoration Day", the precursor to Memorial Day, was held at Arlington National Cemetery. It was a century later in 1968 that Congress made Memorial Day (last Monday in May) an official national holiday. 🌹
