This fee schedule is intended to help you understand the costs associated with leasing and living in your apartment home. Fees, charges, and pricing are subject to change without notice and may vary based on lease term, move-in date, or other factors permitted by law.

The standard security deposit may vary based on screening results but will not exceed the maximum amount permitted by applicable law. Residents are responsible for maintaining the insurance required under the Lease or for paying any applicable alternative insurance-related charges. Residents are also responsible for the cost of repairing damage beyond ordinary wear and tear, including damage caused by any animal. Animal-related damage, including damage resulting from urine, waste, scratching, or chewing, may result in cleaning, repair, or replacement charges in accordance with the Lease.

This Fee Disclosure is provided for informational purposes only and does not modify the Lease. Additional fees, including situational fees, may apply as provided in the Lease. Residents are responsible for establishing and maintaining required utility services in accordance with the Lease. In the event of any conflict between this Fee Disclosure and the Lease, the terms of the Lease shall govern.

If you have any questions about these fees or lease-related charges, please contact the leasing team before signing your Lease.
